Excellence

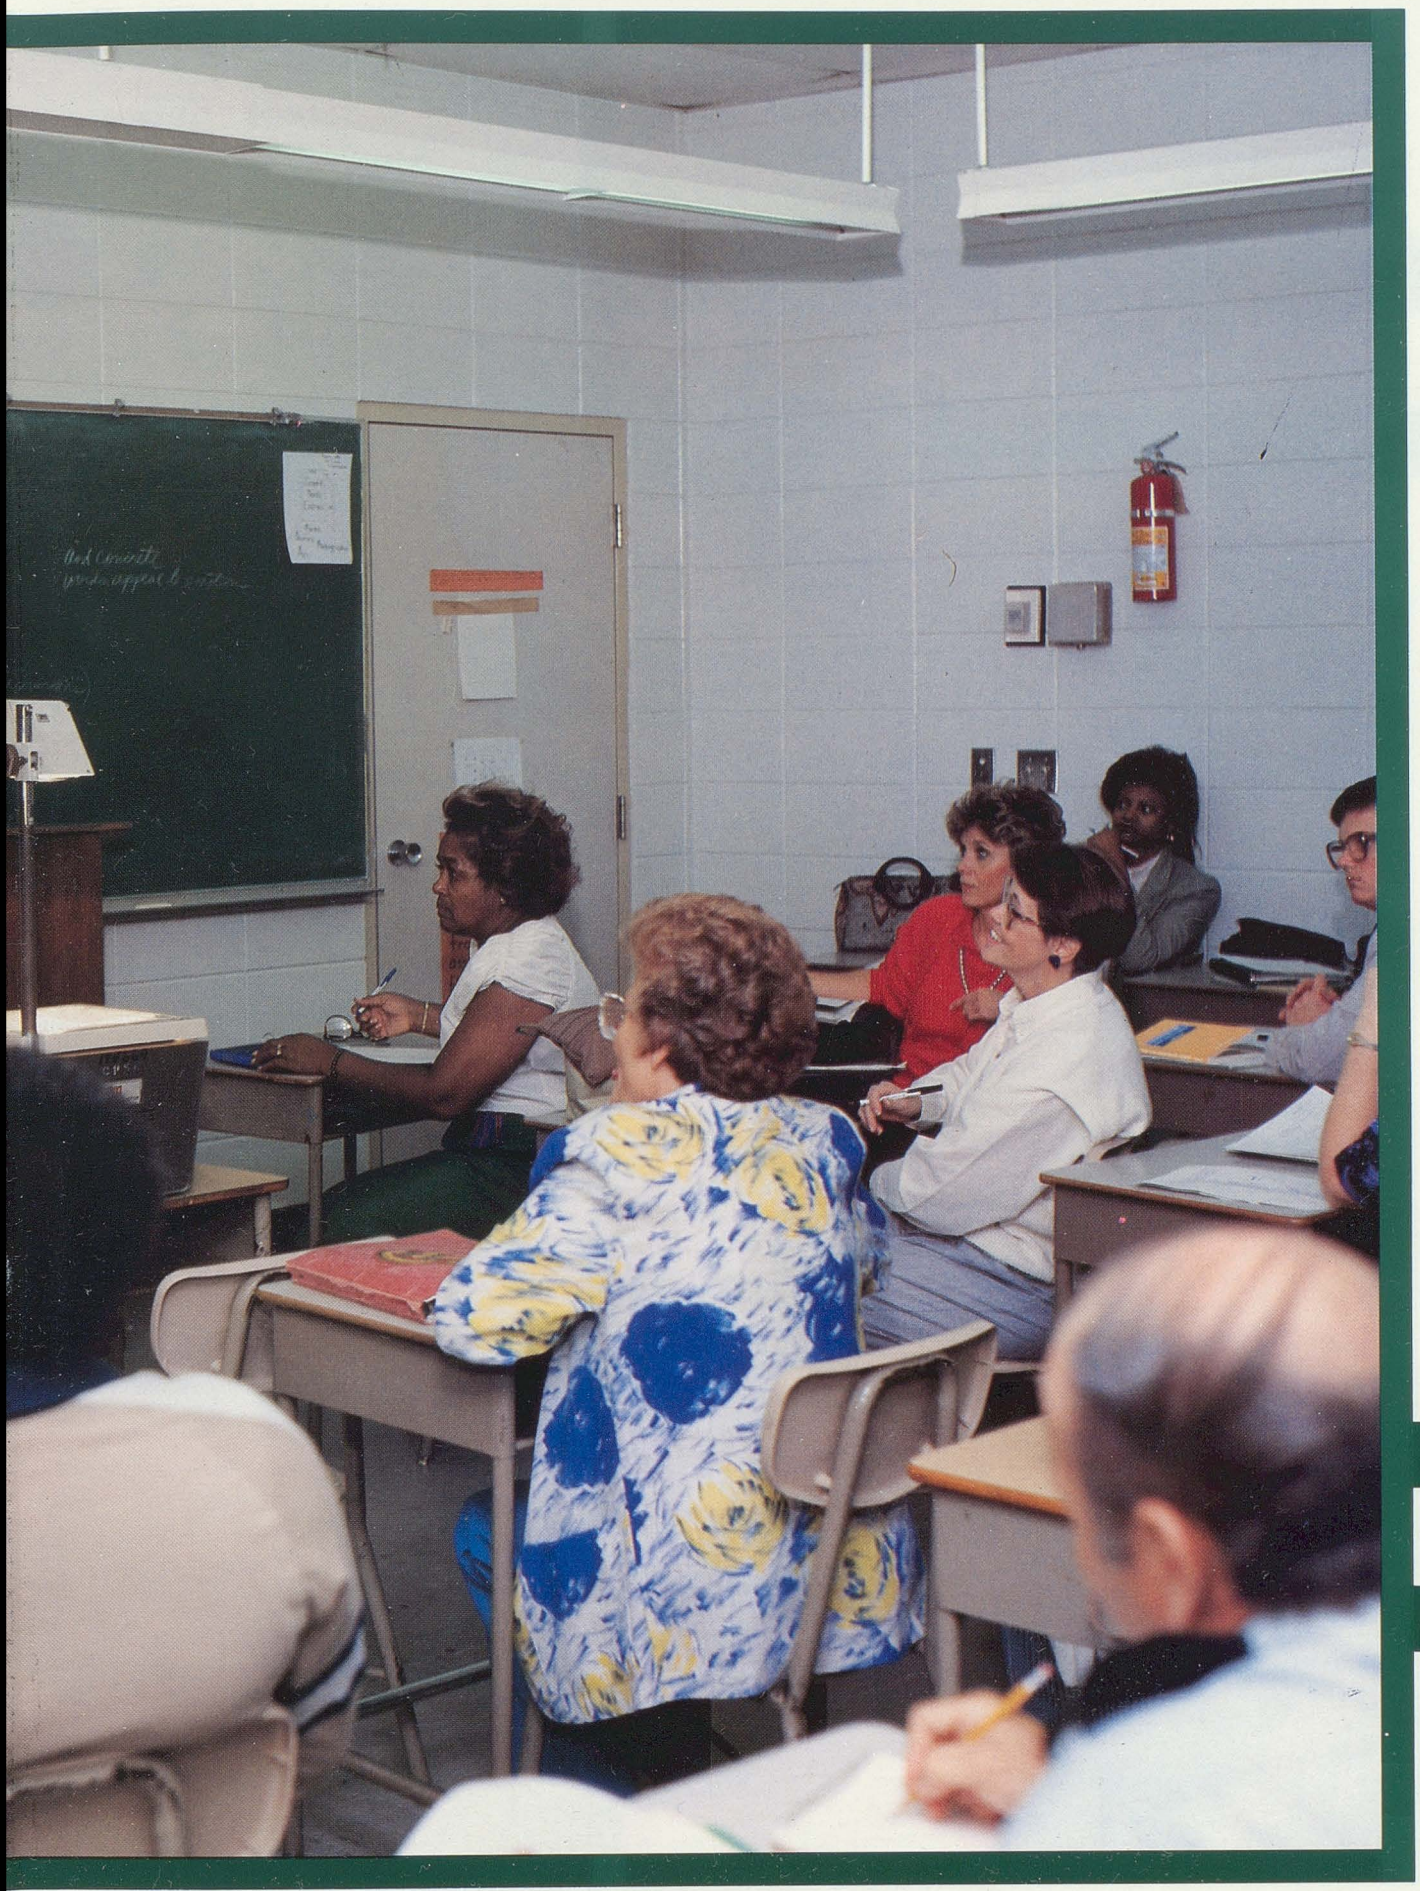

WHAT MADE CAPTAIN SHREVE A CUT ABOVE THE REST? ONE COULD NOT HAVE BESTOWED SUCH AN HONOR ON A CERTAIN THING. INDEED IT WAS NOT A SINGLE OUTSTANDING ASPECT THAT MADE CAPTAIN SHREVE A CUT ABOVE, BUT THE RIGHT MIXTURE OF MANY. NO ITEM COULD BE CALLED FIRST AND FOREMOST AMONG THEM, AND NO SINGLE THING WAS AS IMPORTANT AS THE RIGHT BLEND. THE FACULTY AND CURRICULUM WERE MAJOR INGREDIENTS IN THIS RECIPE, BUT THE SPIRIT AND MOTIVATION OF THE STUDENTS WAS EQUALLY, IF NOT MORE, IMPORTANT TO THE FINAL TASTE. THE CHARISMA OF CAPTAIN SHREVE COULD ONLY BE TERMED ONE THING — EXCELLENCE. CAPTAIN SHREVE'S EXCELLENCE COULD BE MEASURED BY ITS ACCOMPLISHMENTS. NO SCHOOL COULD MATCH SHREVE'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS. IT WAS ONCE SAID THAT, "IT IS EASIER TO COUNT THE THINGS THAT SHREVE HAS NOT DONE THAN THE THINGS IT HAS." THE RANGE OF SHREVE'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND HONORS COULD ONLY BE ATTRIBUTED TO THE DIVERSITY AND CONCENTRATION OF EXCELLENCE. IT WAS EASILY FOUND IN ALL ASPECTS OF CAPTAIN SHREVE. IT ACCOUNTED FOR THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN CAPTAIN SHREVE AND OTHER SCHOOLS; IT MADE CAPTAIN SHREVE-A CUT ABOVE THE REST.

Faculty

FACULTY WAS AN IMPORTANT INGREDIENT TO THE MIXTURE OF EXCELLENCE. ALTHOUGH THIS WAS NOT A PRECEDENT OVER THE REST, THE INCLUSION OF THIS INGREDIENT WAS MOST ESSENTIAL. ESPECIALLY WHEN THE QUALITY OF THE FACULTY AT CAPTAIN SHREVE WAS CONSIDERED. THE SPECIAL TASTE OF EXCELLENCE WAS ACQUIRED WITH THE USE OF A VERY FINE INGREDIENT. CAPTAIN SHREVE'S FACULTY WAS TRULY A CUT ABOVE THE REST. IT WAS THE SUBJECT OF CONSTANT REFORM; IT WAS REVISED AND RESHAPED EVERY YEAR. IT WAS ALSO RECOGNIZED AND HONORED-UP TO THE NATIONAL LEVEL. WHEN CONSIDERING THE EXCELLENT QUALITIES OF THE SHREVE FACULTY, THE REAL DIFFERENCE COULD HAVE BEEN NOTED — ATTITUDE. TRUE CARING AND UNDERSTANDING COULD HAVE BEEN FOUND FROM ALL MEMBERS-TEACHERS, ADMINISTRATORS, OFFICE PERSONNEL, SPONSORS, COUNSELORS, CAFETERIA, AND CUSTODIAL STAFF ALIKE. A GENERAL CONCERN FOR THE STUDENTS PREVAILED THE FACULTY AT CAPTAIN SHREVE. WITHOUT SUCH EXCELLENT QUALITIES INCLUDED IN THE FACULTY INGREDIENT, CAPTAIN SHREVE COULD NOT HAVE BEEN-A CUT ABOVE THE REST.

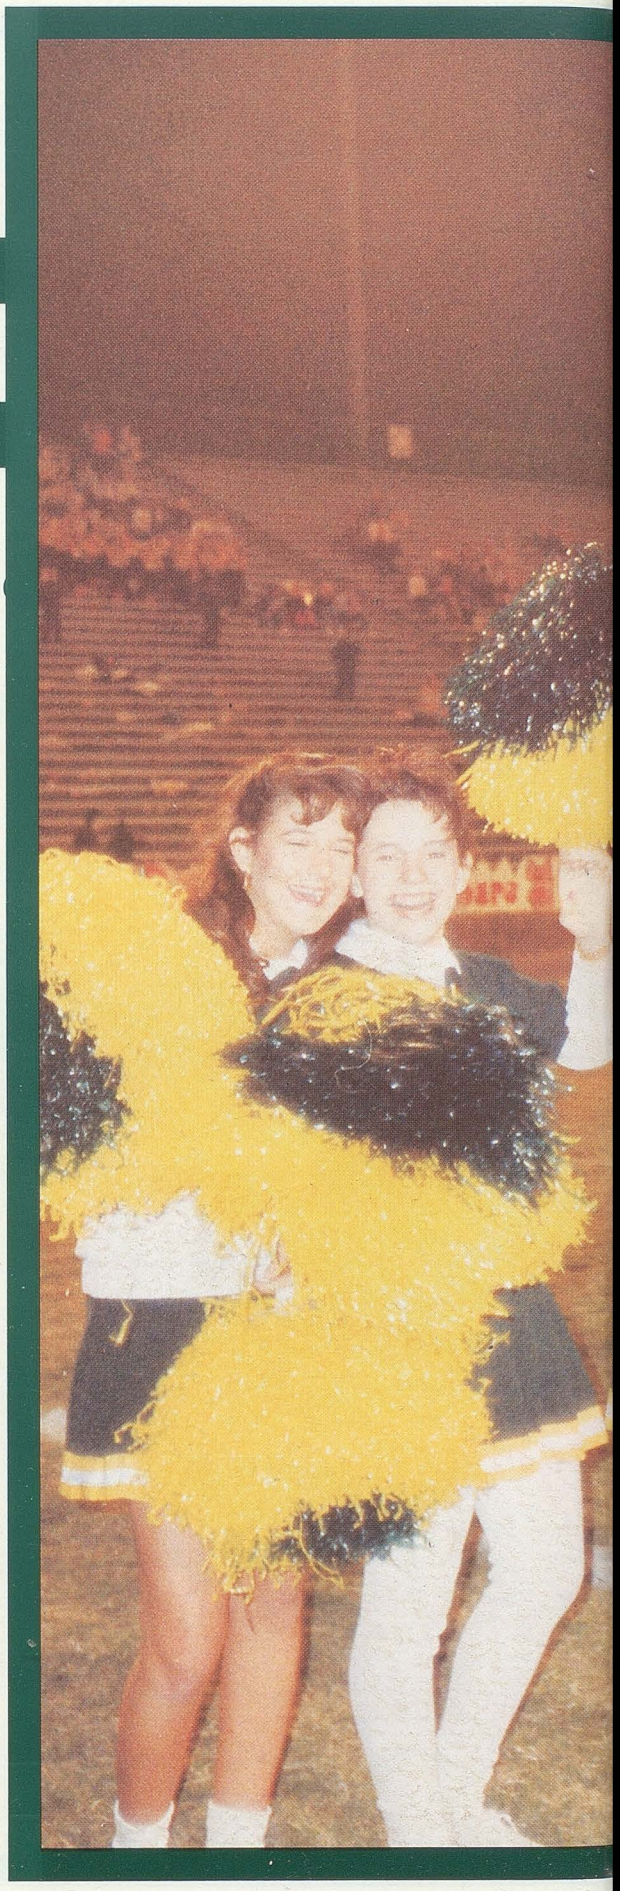

Curriculum

AN ESSENTIAL PART TO EVERY SCHOOL, CURRICULUM AT CAPTAIN SHREVE DID NOT DEPART FROM ITS ESTABLISHED NORM OF EXCELLENCE. THE DIVERSITY OF SUCH WAS ESPECIALLY APPARENT HERE. CAPTAIN SHREVE'S CURRICULUM WAS SECOND TO NO OTHER HIGH SCHOOL IN THE AREA. SUCH A RANGE OF OFFERINGS WAS TO BE FOUND NOWHERE ELSE. SUCH EXCELLENCE WAS INSTRUMENTAL IN SHAPING THE LIVES OF THE STUDENTS WHO ATTENDED HERE. AN AVID LEARNER MIGHT HAVE PIECED TOGETHER HIS HIGH SCHOOL CAREER TO FOLLOW SEVERAL GRADUATION PROGRAMS. SUCH PROGRAMS PLAYED AN INSTRUMENTAL ROLE IN THE MOTIVATION OF THE STUDENTS. THE EXCELLENT CURRICULUM MAY HAVE BEEN MORE IMPORTANT THAN OTHER ASPECTS OF CAPTAIN SHREVE, BECAUSE IT IS THE INGREDIENT THAT INITIALLY CREATES THE MOTIVATION AND AMBITION OF THE NEW STUDENT. COMPUTER LABS, HONORARY PROGRAMS, THE ONLY APPROVED CLASSICS DEPARTMENT, SEVERAL ADVANCED PLACEMENT COURSES AND MORE JOB RELATED COURSES ARE NOTEWORTHY OFFERINGS . SUCH DISTINCTIONS ALLOW CAPTAIN SHREVE'S CURRICULUM TO BE TERMED-A CUT ABOVE THE REST.

Spirit

SCHOOL SPIRIT MIGHT NOT HAVE SEEMED EXTREMELY IMPORTANT TOWARD THE FUNCTIONING OF A SCHOOL, BUT MUCH VALUE WAS PLACED ON SCHOOL SPIRIT AT CAPTAIN SHREVE. SCHOOL SPIRIT WAS EVIDENT IN ALL FACETS OF LIFE AT CAPTAIN SHREVE, AND TOOK AN ESPECIALLY ROWDY AND MEMORABLE FORM DURING THE PEP RALLIES AND GAMES. THE EXTRA ZEST WAS PART OF THE DIFFERENCE THAT MADE CAPTAIN SHREVE A CUT ABOVE THE REST. SUCH SPIRIT WAS VITAL TO THE STATE OF EXCELLENCE ATTAINED AT CAPTAIN SHREVE, FOR WITHOUT IT, STUDENTS WOULD HAVE LACKED THE MOTIVATION TO BECOME INVOLVED AND TO CARE ABOUT SHREVE. WITHOUT THE LEVEL OF MOTIVATION EVIDENT IN SHREVE STUDENTS, THE SCHOOL COULD NOT HAVE HOPED TO SHINE OUT AS IT DID. NEWCOMERS WERE SHOCKED AT THE INTENSE PATRIOTISM AT CAPTAIN SHREVE. PEOPLE FROM OTHER SCHOOLS KNEW OF THE INTENSE SCHOOL SPIRIT OF SHREVE. IT WAS SO RECOGNIZED BECAUSE IT SURPASSED THAT OF ALL OTHER SCHOOLS. THE GATORS' DEDICATION TO THEIR ALMA MATER ALLOWED IT TO ATTAIN THE EXCELLENCE IT DID, AND TO BECOME A CUT ABOVE THE REST.

Motivation

THE FACULTY AND THE CURRICULUM ONLY PROVIDED A FOUNDATION FOR EXCELLENCE. IT WAS STUDENTS AND TEACHERS WHO POSESSED THE MOTIVATION NECESSARY TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF ALL THE ENRICHING OPPORTUNITIES WHO BUILT EXCELLENCE UPON THIS FOUNDATION. THE DRIVE, DETERMINATION, AND ZEAL THAT WAS PUT FORTH BY BOTH THE STUDENTS AND FACULTY MADE THE DIFFERENCE. THE MOTIVATION AND DESIRE OF EACH SHREVE STUDENT ALLOWED THE SHREVE EXPERIENCE TO COME ALIVE. THIS KEY INGREDIENT CREATED A GOAL-ORIENTED ATMOSPHERE THAT PUSHED CAPTAIN SHREVE TO THE MARK OF EXCELLENCE. MOTIVATION DROVE THE STUDENTS TO EXCELL IN ALL ASPECTS OF HIGH SCHOOL LIFE-ACADEMICS, INVOLVEMENT, LEADERSHIP, AND ATHLETICS. MOTIVATION DROVE THE FACULTY TO GIVE OF THEMSELVES BEYOND THE REQUIREMENT OF THEIR WORK, IN ORDER TO DO THE BEST JOB POSSIBLE. THE ABSENCE OF MOTIVATION AND SPIRIT WOULD HAVE CREATED A SCHOOL UNRECOGNIZABLE TO PAST AND PRESENT GATORS, BUT INSTEAD, SHREVE STUDENTS AND FACULTY WERE INSPIRED TO BE A CUT ABOVE THE REST.

THE Shreve EXPERIENCE

THE FOUR ELEMENTS PREVIOUSLY MENTIONED COULD HAVE BEEN EQUATED TOTHE INGREDIENTS IN A RECIPE OR THE STRUCTURES OF A BULDING. IN EACH CASE, WHEN USED IN GOOD RATIO, THEY CREATED SOMETHING UNIQUE — THE SHREVE EXPERIENCE. ASIDE FROM AN EDUCATION RANKED HIGH ABOVE NATIONAL STANDARDS, CAPTAIN SHREVE PROVIDED A SPIRITED AND MOTIVATIONAL ATMOSPHERE THAT NO OTHER SCHOOL COULD MATCH. THIS EXPERIENCE WAS CHERISHED BY ALL IT TOUCHED; IT HAS LIVED IN ALUMNI AS A MODEL OF A TRULY WONDERFUL AND EXCELLENT YOUTH; IT WAS ESTABLISHED IN FULL FORCE IN THE FRESHMEN, AND KEPT BUILDING WITHIN THEM DURING POSSIBLY THE FOUR HAPPIEST AND MOST ENRICHING YEARS THEY WILL KNOW. THOSE WHO HAVE HAD THE SHREVE EXPERIENCE HAVE BEEN GIVEN A VISIBLE ADVANTAGE OVER THOSE WHO HAVE NOT. THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN TOUCHED BY CAPTAIN SHREVE HAVE LIVED AN EXPERIENCE THAT WAS TRULY A CUT ABOVE THE REST.

This section was dedicated to all of those who joined us, those who continued on with us, and especially those who left us and moved on. For these people remained in our hearts and reminded us of all of the greatness that was obtained here at Captain Shreve. Throughout the Student Life section, we hoped to relive the days of the 1987-88 school year as seen through your eyes. We tried to capture a small part of each moment and sum it up in following pages. Our intentions, through the work we created, were to provide a glimpse of the lives of each and every Captain Shreve Gator.

MONEY MAKES THE WORLD GO AROUND

Cash "No one has enough, everyone wants more." But how did Gators get their spending money? An allowance supplied some students with money ranging from $5.00 to $65.00 a week. Other students just asked dear ol'dad. But not all of us were that lucky, so we had to resort to jobs. From bagging groceries to modeling clothes, Gators found numerous ways to get the cash they needed. When Gators were asked to comment on the kind of job they wished they could have, a life guard and an assistant in a law office were the most popular responses. According to BETSY MACARTHUR , a Junior and a worker at the Cookie Company at Mall St. Vincent, "Before receiving my paycheck there are many responsibilities and long hours, but in the end, my job is very rewarding." CHRIS WYNN , also a Junior and a host at Clancy's Restaurant, said, "Although it does get in the way of going out or studying, the money is great." Gators had found that a good attitude and hard work offered great rewards, but no matter how much they made, money couldn't buy them love.

HAIRCUT

WESOME! That was the word to describe Gators haircuts in 1988. As you have seen, Shreve had a variety of haircuts. For the girls, the trends seemed to follow along the lines of either a kinky perm or a blunt bob cut. For guys, there seemed to be an inclination toward the very short hair and sometimes no hair at all. Some of Shreve's Gators had had the same haircut since sixth grade and then others had their's "tuned up" at least once a week. A new hairstyling product for girls was a crimping iron, which was used in the same manner as a curling iron. Through the years many sayings have been formed about hair, such as "getting in one's hair" as was pictured by WESLEY GRAHAM, and "making one's hair stand on end" as was shown by TODD LOVE, and SCOTT MINOR was "tearing his hair out". To achieve these looks, mousse, gel, hairspray, sheen, perms, razors, and numerous other products were used in various ways. While it only took SCOTT CULBERT two minutes to fix his hair, it took KAREN COVINGTON thirty minutes to achieve her favorite look. "So Gators, spike it, frizz it, crimp it, fix it any way you please, because 'YOU'VE GOT THE LOOK!' "

PRACTICE MAKES

Probably every student that you would have ever met at Captain Shreve High School had some particular talent or ability that he was especially good at. These talents varied as much as the people themselves. From sports to the fine arts, the Gators were skillled in many areas.

"Having natural talent in any area should not be taken for granted. I believe that you should work hard and always try to develop it even more," stated Steven Schmidt, a sophomore, who played on the tennis team. Many of the gators took classes or lessons to further develop their raw talents. Proof to the old saying "practice makes perfect" was certainly shown here. Because, as a result of their efforts, many of the Gators entered competitions and won numerous honors and awards with their perfected skills.

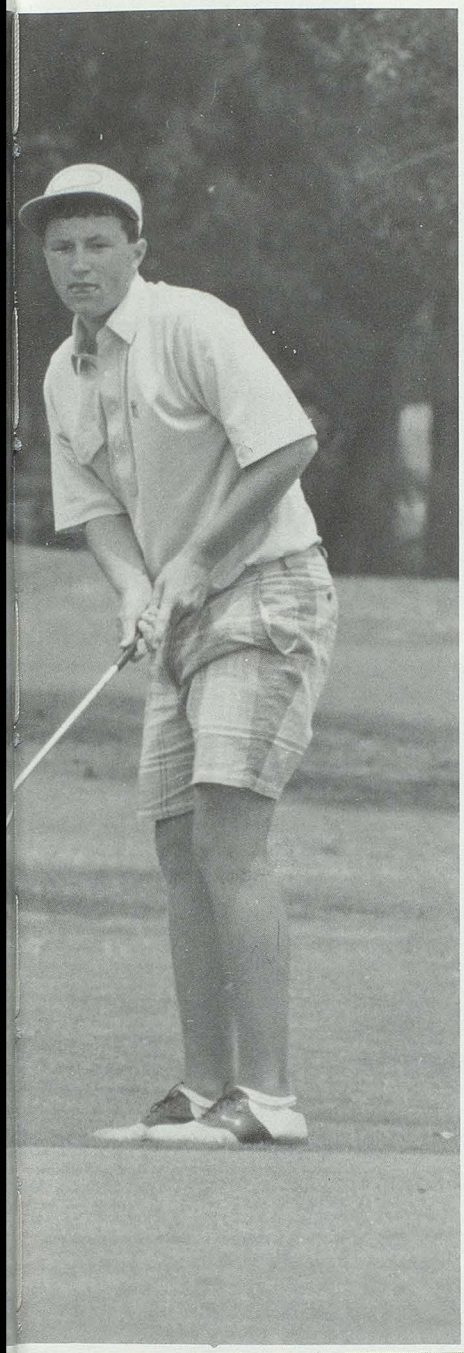

Yes, many aspects of life at Captain Shreve depended upon the talents and abilities of the students who participated in them. Captain Shreve was home to many exceptionally talented people.

BON APPETIT

Tried to find a super supper? Looked for a luscious lunch? Where did you go? According to Captain Shreve Gators, meeting for lunch or dinner was a popular way to enjoy yourself with your friends and favorite types of food.

In a 1987-88 poll, favorite eating places were ranked according to their popularity. Here are the results of that poll: The HOTTEST eating spot in town was El Chico's, where hundred's of pounds of chips and countless gallons of hot sauce were devoured that year by hungry Gators. Number two in popularity was the Teddy Bear Sandwich Den which "bearly" beat out Murrell's — the legendary, round the clock, "chat 'n chew". Fourth on the list of favorites was Shogun — the kung fu kitchen with the excitement of a food fight.

So there you had it. A menu with a variety and a place to visit seemed to be what we were all looking for. Oh, by the way, McDonald's and the pizza places were tied for second to last, just ahead of the Shreve Cafeteria!

SENIORITIS

"Anyone ready for the real world? College . . . jobs . . . ADULT RESPOSIBILITIES! Yikes! Are we really ready for this? I'm kind of scared, what about you? But what's the alternative? Another four years of high school?! NO WAY!" This was the honest and ubiquitous attitude among seniors during the 1987-88 school year.

Ready or not, it was full steam ahead for most seniors. Upon graduation some opted for jobs, some considered the armed forces, some traveled, but most moved on to college. BUT WHAT COLLEGE?! The choices were limitless; but, first, there were ACT's, SAT's, achievement tests, essays, applications, campus visits, interviews, GPA's, recommendations, class ranks, FAF's . . . Who had time for a senior year?!

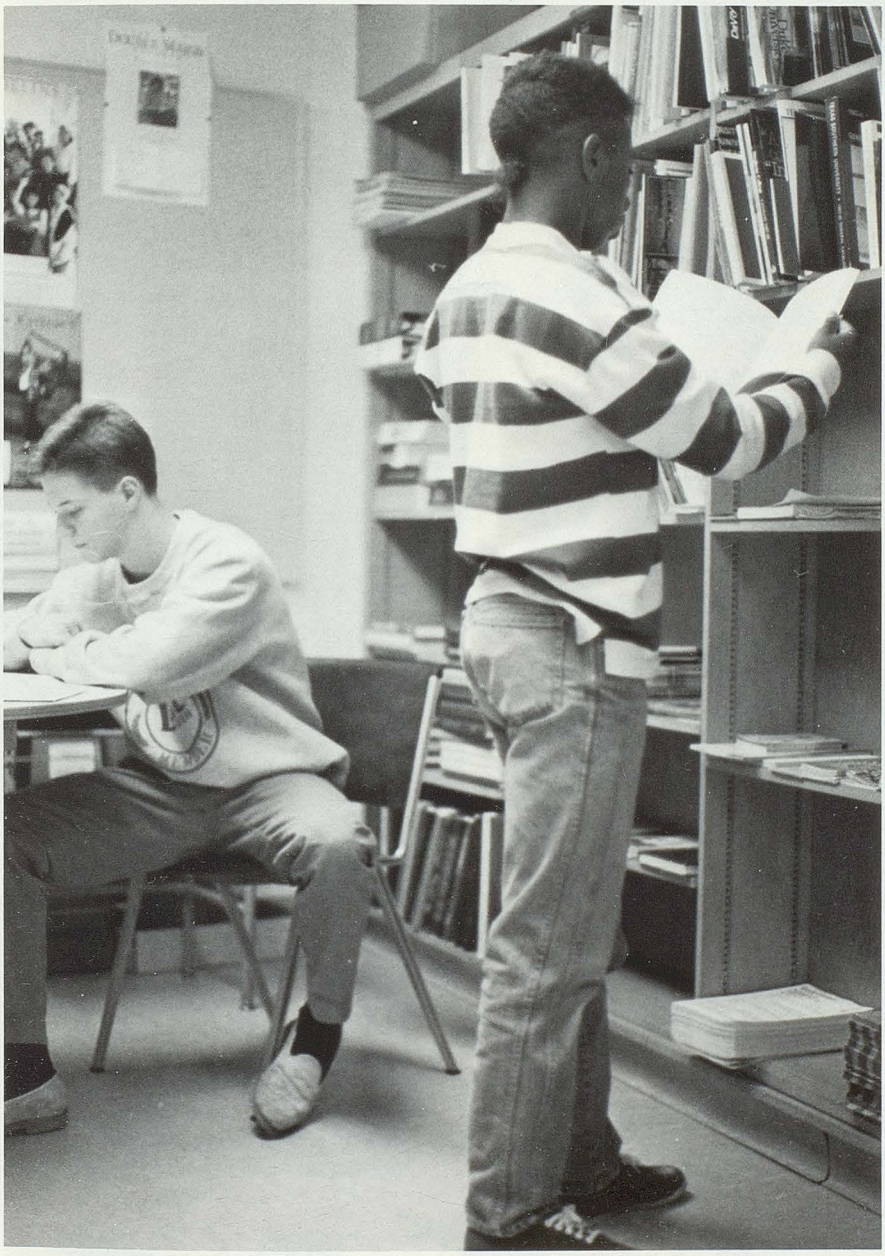

A quote that typified the distressed feelings felt by many busy seniors was taken from Jennifer Moore when she said. "Colleges want you to be some sort of superkid. If you are trying to be the type of student that a college wants, then you don't have time to write adequate essays that most colleges require."

"What's that? Mrs. Horne, am I dreaming? Hallelujah! A light at the end of the tunnel — College Awareness Night. Over forty colleges represented? All in one night? All in one place?! My prayers have been answered. Pack my bags, Mom, I'm going to college!"

CAMERON GUNNIN and JILL WATSON await the beginning of Mrs. Drake's fifth period advanced math class and all of the day's homework.

GIVE ME CASHMERE OR GIVE ME DEATH

"What WILL I wear tomorrow?", "I don't have a THING to wear!", "What, are you kidding? I wore that LAST MONTH! I can't wear it again this soon!" Do these comments bring back memories? Admit it; they do. Why do you think almost every girl at Captain Shreve worked at the Limited — for the wonderful opportunity to learn responsibility? WAKE UP! Employees received great discounts!

When asked where she liked to shop, senior MINDY HOPKINS said. "I like to shop in Knox Goodman's, Chelsea's Boutique, and Cotton and Company while in Shreveport, but Dallas's shopping is really better." Senior MARY ROBERSON said "Shreveport caters to the preppy, conservative appearance . . . Shreveport really needs more diversity." With this opinion freshman YOLANDA FRIERSON agreed and added that she shopped primarily at Dillard's.

So, whether it was at Bergdorf Goodman, Saks Fifth Avenue, Hermes, or the Salvation Army, shopping was definitely a mainstay of the Captain Shreve Gators.

PAINT THE TOWN RED!

Never before were the pressures being put on high school students to achieve higher, work harder, and participate more, as heavy as they were on us at Captain Shreve. Therefore, these students needed a time when they could let loose, forget their pressures, and relieve the stress of everyday life. This was the reason, we felt, that someone invented Friday and Saturday nights. This was the time when the true fun-lovers came out, and we ventured into the area we so simply called . . . "Night Life."

So what exactly was there to do on a weekend night? "Well, we can always find a party out somewhere, and if we can't — we just start our own!" said KENNY FENTON , a sophomore. Yes, it's true, there usually was a dance or party of some sort. And when there was not any formal get-together, gators could often be found at area fast food joints and parking lots just "hanging out."

Whatever the occasion though, on a weekend night you could be sure that the gators were out there, keeping the city alive, stirring up excitement, and living life in the fast lane. Yeah, it was a tough job — but somebody had to do it.

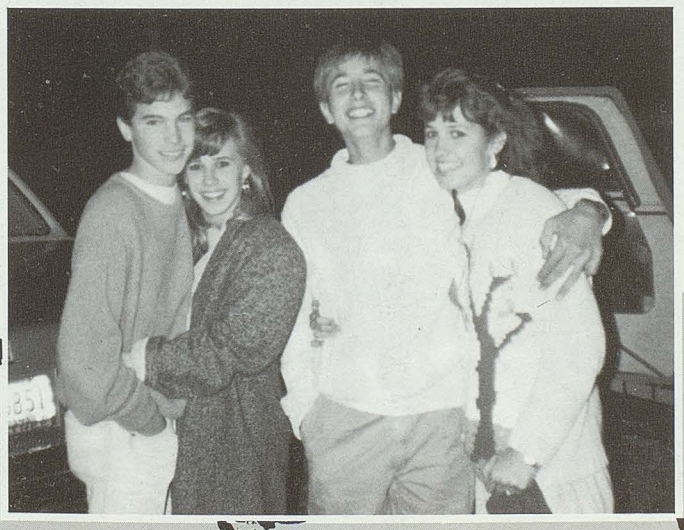

Gators gather, converse and mingle on weekend nights.

Sometimes Gators spent a night out on the town with just "the girls" or just "the guys."

Gators gathered in masses at area parking lots to pass the night away.

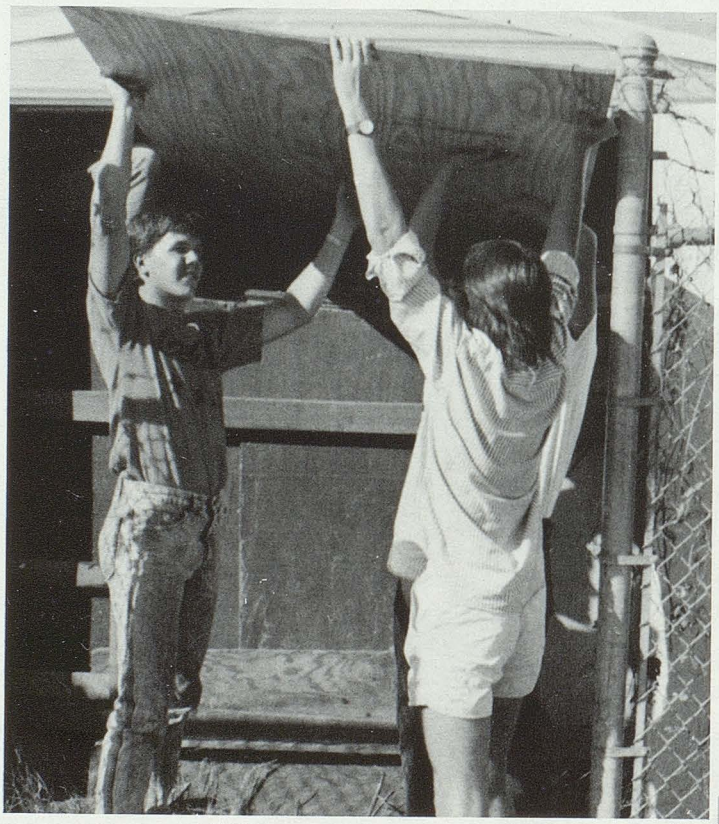

A common scene on a weekend night, some gators went out in couples on the ever-popular "double date."

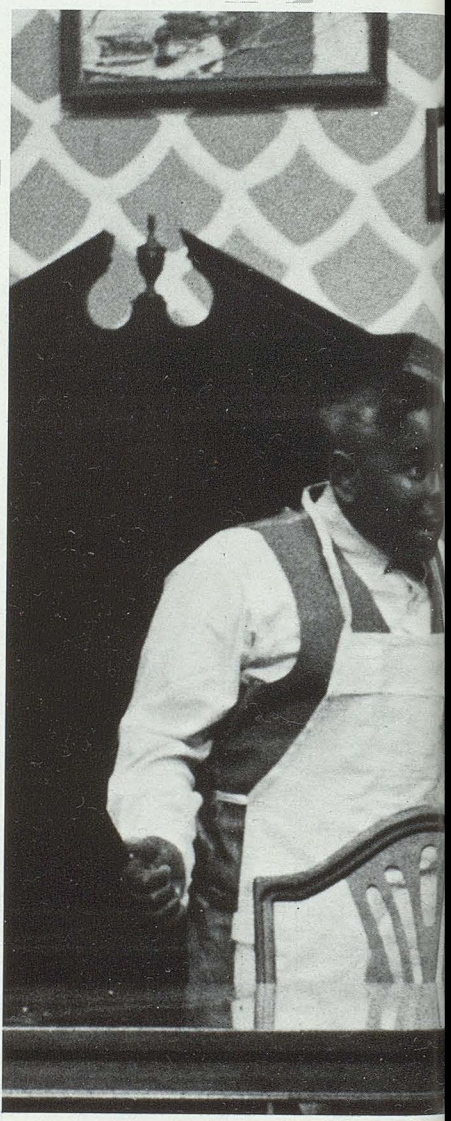

LET'S PLAY!

Reality was set aside when fantasy and dramatic expression took the stage during the autumn and spring plays at Captain Shreve in the 1987-88 school year. But who carried materials into the auditorium, built the stage, put up the lighting, set up the sound system, painted props, auditioned for parts, memorized lines, spent endless hours and nights up at the school, and performed the other thousand-and-a-half tasks that made both plays successes? The students of Captain Shreve, of course!

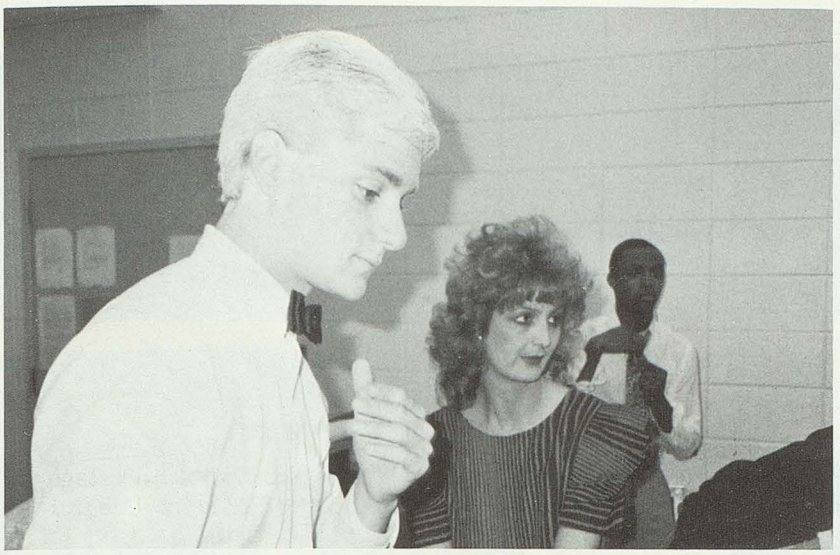

The plays were set into motion by the auditions. These auditions were open to all students in the school, and numerous students "tried out" for the plays. The students who were not chosen for parts as well as the rest of the student body were invited to assist the drama club in the building of stage props. Of course the characters in the play spent more time working on the play's presentation than the rest of the student body, but these "gung-ho" actors and actresses were assisted tremendously by a large cross section of the students at Captain Shreve and Ms. Maleda McKellar, the "brain" of the Thespians.

So, the plays were on with a "Lights! Camera! Action!" But, it was the students of Captain Shreve who made those words possible.

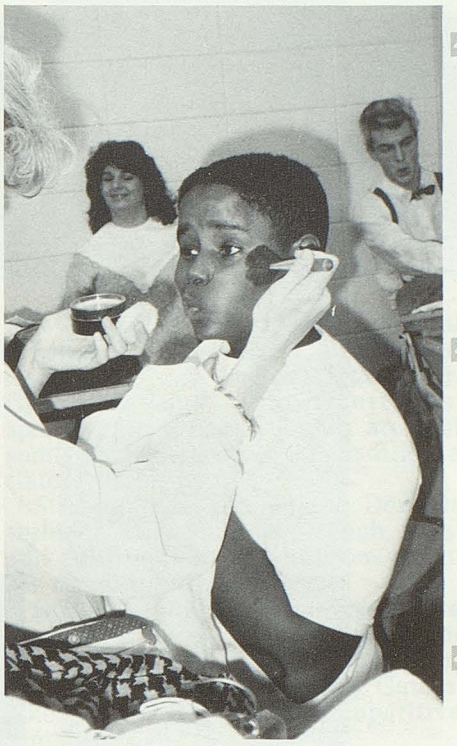

After school, Chris Welsh and Jackson Maxwell carry wooden planks to the stage to be used in constructing the set for You Can't Take it With You , Captain Shreve's fall production.

Bo Howell and Ms. Maleda McKellar anxiously prepare for the last show of the fall play.

Jodie Kalmbach "makes up" Michael Hicks in the dressing room moments before the play is to begin.

Places to go, people to meet, school might have ended at 2:15, but for most Gators, the day was far from over. Club meetings, running errands, sports, music, food and fun are just some of the activities which filled a Gators' "after hours".

Students snacked on Mc Donalds style on cheesburgers, french fries, and cokes while moving from car to car mingling with buddies.

Good friends and good food were important to Gators, but healthy bodies were too. Football, baseball, tennis, aerobics, track and weight lifting were among Gators' exercising methods for keeping fit. Rest was also imparitive in good health so nap time was a big favorite.

Though Gators were in the process of growing up, they became kids all over again around four o' clock when the Jetsons came on. Cartoons, according to Gators, are great teachers as well as entertainers.

After a good snooze and a break from reality, Gators were ready to tackle their homework, but if a friend was having school problems, they were ready to lend a brain, after all, " two heads are better than one."

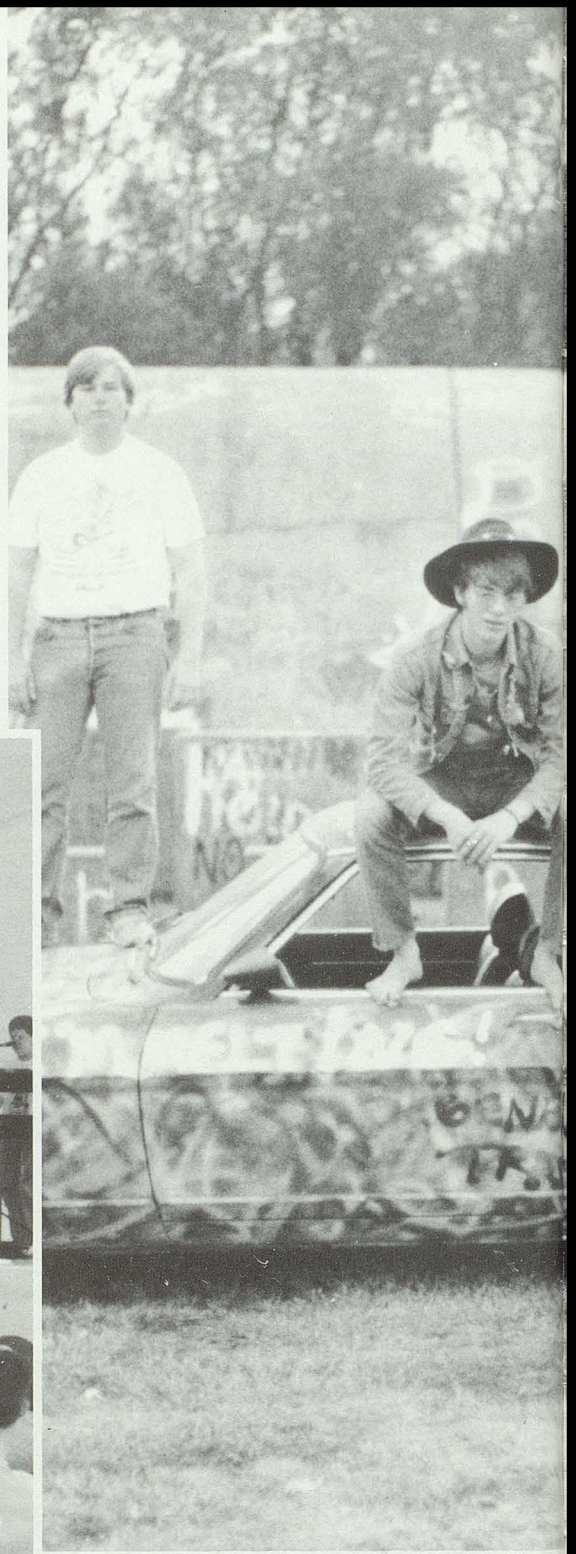

At the end of the day, Gators breathed in a sigh of relief: they had made it through today, but tomorrow the rat race begins again.

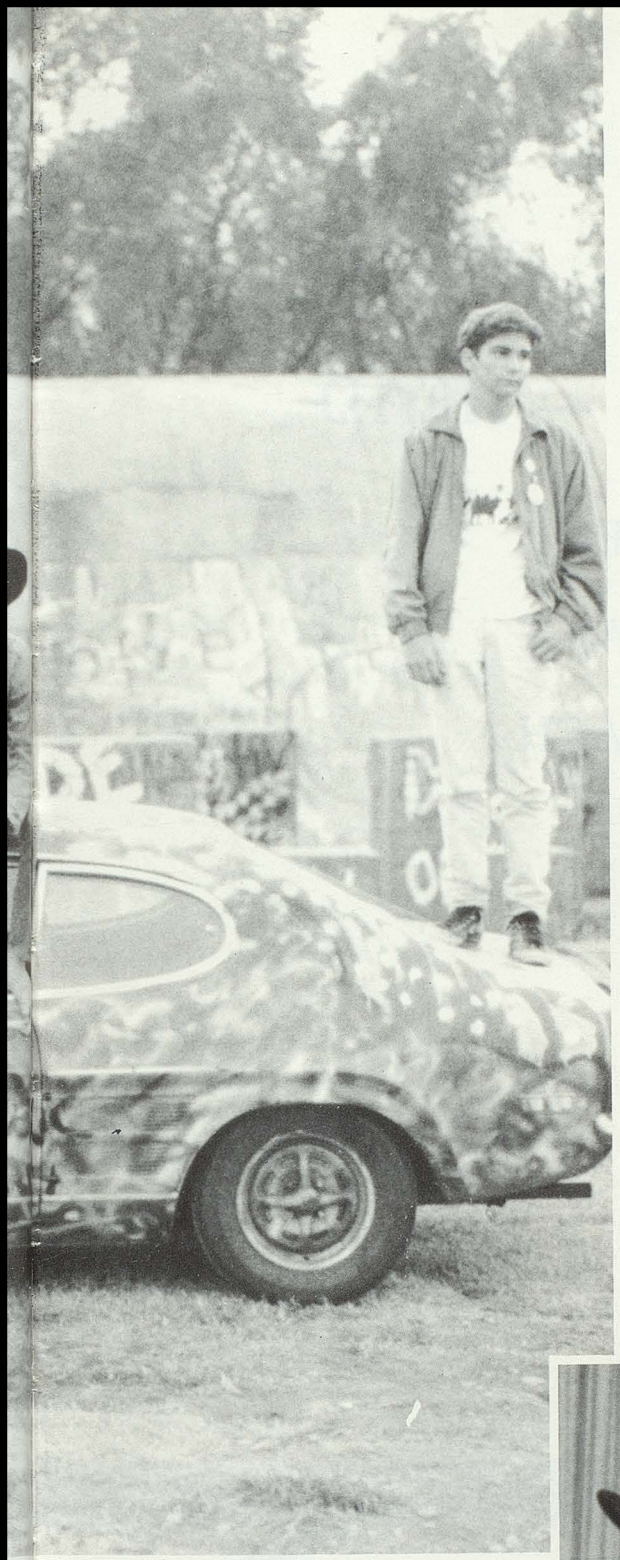

PLAY IT AGAIN, SAM

HIT IT! That's what Shreve bands screamed when they were ready to jam. And jam was exactly what they did. One Shreve band, Generic Trash , "attempted to get away from modern music by writing and performing ridiculas songs." They have recorded two tapes of their own: "Celluloin Spaghetti" and "Cat Got Your Tongue". Both were like cartoons; farces on life. Another Shreve band, the Hysterix , did very well this year. They played gigs at least twice a month at either parties or clubs and also went on stage at the Red River Revel. The type of songs they were known for was classical songs from such artists as U2, INXS, and the Who. But their favorite tunes to play were the ones they created. Ken Monk, a newcomer to the Hysterix, also played in a band best known as the Extreme . The Extreme did very well, with the possibility of a recording contract. A third Shreve band was known as Unique . They played at various talent shows and parties around town. Although Shreveport is not considered Music City USA, our locals sure beat all.

LEFT: Unique members are as follows: Fred Moss on the bass guitar, Ketrick Robinson as the lead vocal, Derolyk Fuller on the drums, Bruce Elebee as the background vocals, Eric Nulley, on the lead guitar, and La Mont Ford on the keyboard.

PRINCIPAL

Below: Although most people see her as very serious, Dr. McCalla can find time for laughter in her busy schedule. Above: Dr. McCalla must work diligently and quickly to get through her tremendous work load.

Too many times, a school's credibility stemmed only from its high athletic achievement or from its talented students. In reality, however, it was our belief that a major part of a school's credibility stemmed from its principal. Our principal, Dr. McCalla, was a prime example of this. By establishing and demanding high expectations of her students and faculty, Dr. McCalla strengthened our school. Her neverending desire to acquire all the knowledge neccessary to successfully run our school was seen in her completion of an Ed.D degree which she masterfully received from Texas A & M this summer. Inspite of her tedious office work, Dr. McCalla paid friendly visits to random classrooms both to view classroom etiquette and more importantly to catch the delight of seeing her students learn. Dr. McCalla inspired each and every student at our school with her desire to achieve, and without her leadership, support, and guidance, we would not have been a cut above.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPALS

Mr. Tommy Powell

Mr. John Dilworth

Often, assistant principals were overlooked as important parts of the administrative staff of a school. However, we, the student body, academic staff, and Dr. McCalla, realized the value of our assistant principals. Mr. Tommy Powell constantly aided Dr. McCalla in administrative duties; while Mr. John Dilworth amiably but orderly guided the students in the right direction. These assistant principals exhibited pride in our accomplishments — whether it was an academic competition or our behavior in an assembly, pep rally or an "away" game. Dr. McCalla led our school to the top, but not without Mr. Powell, Mr. Dilworth, and the entire Captain Shreve personnel. We were thankful for their patience, understanding, and belief in us when sometimes we doubted our own abilities.

Mr. Dilworth makes a lot of new friends his first year at Captain Shreve.

Mr. Powell has much business to take care of in his office during the few moments he's able to be in it.

When we had any sort of problem, we went to the front desk. Little did we realize the awesome task the office faces every day. The mountains of paper work and numerous tiny tasks often overwhelmed the staff, but throughout the year they kept us going all the way to the end. No one deserved the laziness of summer more than the dedicated office staff at Captain Shreve.

Art and music meant opportunity. Opportunity often meant good times. Good times were better when one was learning to appreciate the beauty of art and music. Art supplied the students with an outlet for their skills. As art was an outlet, music was an intense appreciation of the development of our musical heritage. In both courses there was an emphasis on the rich and colorful past achievements in both fields. An art student was able to quickly point out the works of masters; a music student might have developed a quick ear for classics as well as a brewing genius for future accomplishments. These students drew on the creative brilliance of their teachers in forming their respective foundations in the areas of art and music.

The Future Business Leaders of tomorrow were enrolled in our business department. The economics of our great nation were examined every day in the classrooms of Captain Shreve. Education in this field enabled the students of Captain Shreve to take advantage of business opportunities in the future. What if the Stock Market crashed with the ever-widening trade deficit — ask a business student. With our future always hinged on the economy, the prospect of tomorrow's business students being more knowledgable than ever before was a reassuring thought. Good luck to the bankers, CPA'S, secretaries, word processors, lawyers, economists, businessmen, and entrepreneurs of the future.

ENGLISH

English, the most valued skill in today's world, was taught to perfection in the classrooms of Captain Shreve. This started with an overview of skills which included reading and comprehension on the freshman level; the English courses advanced year by year through American and European literature, when one had culminated his English experience at Shreve he or she was uniquely prepared for any college environment. One who could write, read, and speak the language to a certain degree of perfection had an invaluable accomplishment and was assured a place in the world of tomorrow. The English teachers at Captain Shreve have been meticulously chosen, and every degree of their education has been overviewed in order to insure the students the finest possible English experience.

In today's world of increasing closeness, where a global community is spoken of ever more often, it has almost become a necessity in the business world to have some sort of exposure to at least one foreign language or culture. Captain Shreve with this in mind offers in its curriculum the following: Spanish I, II, III, IV; German I, II, III, IV; French I, II, III, IV. Also offered is Latin I, II, III, IV which includes in depth looks at the ancient history that today still steers our lives. It is not unusual to see a class where English is prohibited. A valuable use of the language was stressed at Shreve. We owe our bi-lingual futures to the foresight of Captain Shreve and its star-studded foreign language department.

These freshman boys are trying to get up the strength in order to lift all those heavy weights, though it may take them a while.

These willing girls gave their time and ability to help the Arthritis Foundation in the Dance for hearts program.

Physical education offered various assortments of activities through out the school year. The sharp skilled coaching staff is proud of itself by showing a clean, well-run physical education department-from weight room to the gym and the physical education classroom kept us fine tuned and ready for action. Football; basketball; aerobics; weight lifting; tennis; softball — these were only a few of many activities enjoyed by the physical education students. Advanced physical education, a relatively new member of the Captain Shreve ciriculum, took the regular experience of physical education one step further. At Shreve physical education was enjoyed by all.

Timing is of the essence in ROTC.

The Reserve Officers Training Corp has been prevalent at Captain Shreve over the past year. The halls were filled with those students who recognized the benefits of a pre — military training and understanding plus the benefits of the post — high school education. Our honor guard seen at most formal school functions was just one of the many services and activities the ROTC corp contributes to at Captain Shreve. To walk with a gun or to march in a militaristic fashion were only a few of the many skills these enlighted students pick up in the course of their high school ROTC training. Let us salute our successful ROTC training program.

Science — the wonder of nature and the riddles of mankind were explored daily in the science classrooms of Captain Shreve. Physical Science and physics looked at the laws of motion and the universe. The science department at Captain Shreve was ahead of its class. The physics class was the largest in the city and other sciences were not far behind in recognition.

These Captain Shreve Gators study the theories of the great unknowns of the universe.

These classes help the students learn the history about themselves and others. It can range anywhere from the Civil War to the Spanish Armada and even come to the present day where history is being made right here in the classrooms at Captain Shreve.

One of the library helpers that you always see in the library is trying to do a little enriching of the mind of his own.

If anyone ever needed a book about the decline of the Roman Empire or the latest issue of the New York Times, go to the library. This year the library received a face lift. New copies and new issues best characterized Shreve's award winning library. Every student was virtually assailed with offers of help from the concerned library staff upon entering the library. Like a heart the library was located in the very center of the school, where students pass by and utilize it daily.

Miss Ramsey and Mrs. E. Davis decided to take one of those hard deserved breaks from all the hustle and bustle of such a great learning center as the library.

THERE WERE SOME MIXED FEELINGS ABOUT GRADUATION. A GREAT DEAL OF OUR SENIORS WERE READY TO GO TO COLLEGE. SENIOR, GERALD ADAMS, SAID, "I'M READY TO LEAVE SHREVE, BUT I'LL MISS ALL OF MY FRIENDS. I'M NOT SCARED. I MEAN, I'M LOOKING FORWARD TO IT." SENIOR, KAMI FARMER, AGREED WITH GERALD, "I'M READY TO LEAVE!" WHEN ASKED IF SHE WOULD EVER WANT TO COME BACK AND DO IT ALL AGAIN, SHE LAUGHED SAYING, "I DOUBT IT. I'LL PROBABLY STAY AWAY!" ALTHOUGH OUR SENIORS MAY BE READY TO LEAVE, SOME WERE STILL A LITTLE SCARED. SENIOR, TRACY ASHLEY, SAID, "I'M READY TO GRADUATE AND ONCE I'M OUT I'M SURE I PROBABLY WON'T COME BACK BUT, I'M A LITTLE SCARED BECAUSE I'M GOING TO MISS THE SECURITY OF HIGH SCHOOL. I'LL HAVE TO FACE THE WORLD ON MY OWN, IT'S JUST GOING TO BE DIFFERENT."

IN CLASS DANIEL GREEN PROTECTS HIS EGGS FROM THE EVILS OF SOCIETY DURING A ONE WEEK SOCIOLOGY PROJECT.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPY RELEASED GENERAL REPORTS ON THE STRESSES AND PRESSURES OF DUAL CAREER COUPLES RAISING CHILDREN. ON OCTOBER 30, 1981, ONE FAMILY THERAPIST REPORTED, "WORKING MOTHERS OF OLDER CHILDREN DON'T FEEL LESS STRESS THAN MOTHERS WITH YOUNGER CHILDREN, JUST DIFFERENT KINDS OF STRESS." IT SEEMED THAT PROBLEMS SUCH AS FUNDING DAY CARE MAY GO AWAY BUT AS CHILDREN MATURE, MORE COMPLICATED AND SERIOUS PROBLEMS ARISE.

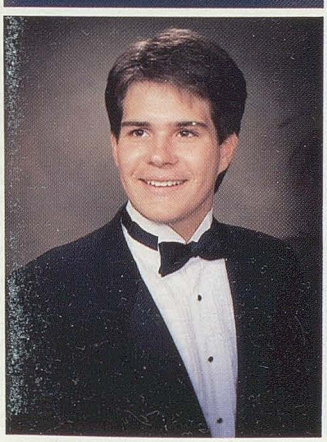

MANY COUPLES WERE RELUCTANT TO SEEK HELP IN RAISING CHILDREN BECAUSE AS ONE DOCTOR PUT IT, "THESE COUPLES SEE THEMSELVES AS COMPETENT AND SUCCESS ORIENTED. IF THEY SEEK HELP IT MEANS THEY FAILED." FAMILY PROBLEMS AFFECTED NOT ONLY THE HOME AND SCHOOL LIFE BUT ALSO THE WORK PLACE. IT WAS IMPORTANT IN THOSE STRESS FILLED DAYS THAT FAMILIES DID SEEK HELP REGARDLESS OF THEIR APPREHENSIONS.

BACK PACKS WEREN'T JUST FOR HIKING. SENIORS USED THEM TO CARRY THE BOOKS AND BINDERS UP AND DOWN CAPTAIN SHREVES' STAIRS. THERE WERE DEFINITE ADVANTAGES TO CARRYING A BACK PACK OVER CARRYING BOOKS BY HAND. WITH A BACK PACK, ONE COULD CARRY A LOCKERFUL OF BOOKS IN THEIR PACK, THEREFORE LIMITING ONE'S TRIPS TO THEIR LOCKERS. WHILE KEEPING YOUR BOOKS ORGANIZED. IT ALLOWED FREEDOM OF BOTH ARMS TO CARRY EXTRA ITEMS SUCH AS CLUB CANDY SALES OR SPIRIT TAGS. MOST SENIORS FOUND THEIR BACK PACK AT RED RIVER OUTFITTERS, L.L. BEAN, AND CAMPERS CORNER. BACK PACKS RANGED FROM RED JANSPORT PACKS TO PURPLE PLAID PACKS. REGARDLESS OF SIZE AND COLOR, THERE WAS A MYRIAD OF BACK PACKS HANGING FROM SHOULDERS ALL OVER THE HALLS OF SHREVE.

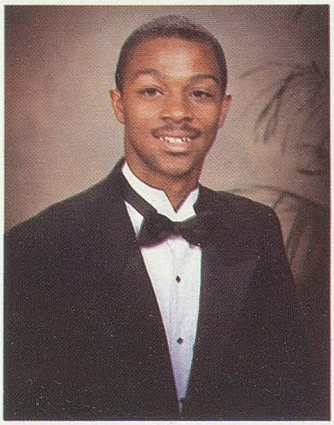

CATHERINE PRINGLE, ALISON LIPE, AND MARY BEVINS DISCUSS HOW HANDY THEIR BACK PACKS ARE FOR CARRYING THEIR BOOKS.

JENNIFER MOORE, TRICIA TEDFORD, AND DANNA JOBE ATTEMPT A DANGEROUS CHEERLEADING STUNT DURING PRACTICE.

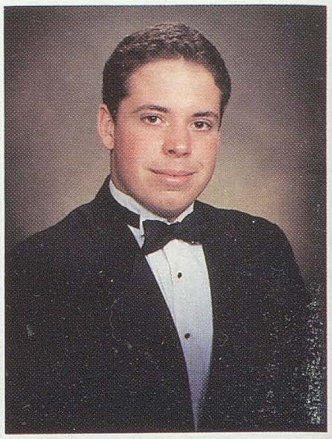

ONE OF THE MORE POPULAR ACTIVITIES FOR SENIOR GIRLS AT CAPTAIN SHREVE WAS CHEERLEADING. EACH YEAR TEN GIRLS GOT THE CHANCE TO LIVE IT OUT. THERE HAVE BEEN QUESTIONS RAISED ABOUT THIS SPORT, ONE OF WHICH WAS "IS CHEERLEADING TOO DANGEROUS?"

CHEERLEADER, MELANIE MAXEY AGREED THAT CHEERLEADING COULD BE DANGEROUS. SHE SAID, "IT IS WHETHER OR NOT YOU TAKE CHEERLEADING AS A SPORT OR JUST AS AN ACTIVITY. IN ANY SPORT THERE IS A RISK AND WITH CHEERLEADING, YOU JUST HAVE TO KNOW WHAT YOU'RE GETTING INTO." NOW DAYS CHEERLEADING SEEMS TO BE MORE OF A GYMNASTIC TYPE ACTIVITY. CHEERLEADERS BUILD PYRAMID AFTER PYRAMID. THERE HAVE BEEN MANY INCIDENCES WHERE PEOPLE HAVE BEEN SERIOUSLY INJURED OR EVEN KILLED FROM CHEERLEADING STUNTS. DANNA JOBE FELT THAT CHEERLEADING COULD BE DANGEROUS BUT SHE SAID, "WE'RE TOO CAUTIOUS TO HAVE AN ACCIDENT." THE INCREASE OF INJURIES DUE TO CHEERLEADING IN THE PAST SEVEN YEARS HAS INCREASED BY 40%. TO MAKE CHEERLEADING SAFER, MAYBE WE SHOULD THINK ABOUT GETTING A TRAINED CHEERLEADER COACH TO TEACH THEM. CHEERLEADER, SHAJUANIA RUSSELL AGREED, "OUR SPONSOR SHOULD BE IN ON IT AS MUCH AS WE ARE AND SHOULD BE QUALIFIED TO TEACH US HOW TO PERFORM THE STUNTS."

MELANIE BARTHOLD RECEIVES SOME HELPFUL HINTS CONCERNING COLLEGE FROM HER COUNSELOR MRS. HORNE.

CHOOSING THE RIGHT COLLEGE WAS ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT DESCISIONS THAT WAS MADE BY THE SENIORS OF '88. STUDENTS SWEATED OVER ACHIEVEMENT TESTS, HELD THEIR BREATH OVER COLLEGE ADMISSION AND SCHOLARSHIP RESPONSES. WHETHER A STUDENT CHOSE LSUS OR HARVARD, IT WAS A TIME CONSUMING CHORE IN CHOOSING THE COLLEGE OF THEIR CHOICE.

ALISON LIPE RESPONDED TO THIS ISSUE BY SAYING, "I DON'T KNOW EXACTLY WERE I'M GOING TO SCHOOL. RIGHT NOW I'M LOOKING AT WASHINGTON AND LEE OR UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA BECAUSE I THINK THEY OFFER THE CHALLENGE I'M LOOKING FOR." BO HOWELL EXPLAINED HIS POSITION, "LSU HAS IT ALL: A VARIETY OF ACADEMIC SELECTIONS, TOP NOTCH VARSITY ATHLETICS, AND A GREEK LIFE FOR EVERY STUDENT. IT'S EVERYTHING I'M LOOKING FOR IN MY COLLEGE EXPERIENCE."

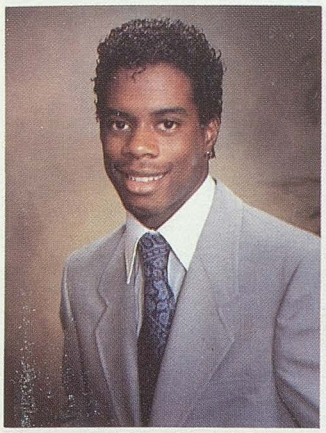

CHOOSING A COLLEGE WAS SOMETIMES CONFUSING BUT WITH CAREFUL INVESTIGATIONS INTO THE NATION'S MYRIAD OF SCHOOLS, SHREVE STUDENTS FOUND UNIVERSITIES THAT BEST SUITED THEM.

PRESIDENT RONALD REAGAN KEPT HIS STRATEGY FOR A POLITICAL SETTLEMENT OF THE PERSIAN GULF WAR ON TRACK. REAGAN AVOIDED LETTING THE UNITED STATES SLIDE INTO A ROLE AS A BELLIGERENT ON IRAQ'S SIDE. THAT WAS WHY HE ''PULLED HIS PUNCH'' IN RETALIATING AGAINST IRAN FOR ITS' MISSLE ATTACK ON THE U.S. FLAGGED KUWAITI TANKER IN KUWAIT WATERS. THE SHELLING OF AN INACTIVE IRANIAN OIL PLATFORM ON OCTOBER 19, 1987 WAS THE MINIMUM NEEDED TO WARN THE IRANIANS AGAINST SUCH ATTACKS AND REASSURE ARAB COUNTRIES. WASHINGTON'S AIM WAS TO MAINTAIN NEUTRALITY, EVEN THOUGH THE U.S. WAS INDIRECTLY HELPING IRAQ BY ESCORTING SHIPS OF KUWAIT, IRAQ'S ALLY.

MANY STUDENTS LEFT LOUISIANA AFTER GRADUATION TO GO TO COLLEGE IN OTHER STATES. BUT THESE WERE NOT JUST ORDINARY STUDENTS, THEY WERE THE BRIGHTEST AND THE BEST. THERE WERE A NUMBER OF REASONS EXPLAINING WHY THE "UPPER CRUST" OF LOUISIANA WANTED OUT. ONE WAS THE FACT THAT LOUISIANA SCHOOLS WERE UNDERFUNDED, ANOTHER WAS THAT SOME STUDENTS WANTED TO EXPERIENCE A NEW COMMUNITY. AND SOME JUST FIGURED THAT LOUISIANA SCHOOLS COULDN'T COMPARE WITH THE OUT OF STATE SCHOOLS IN EDUCATION AND TECHNIQUE.

A LOT OF OVER-ACHIEVERS WERE FROM CAPTAIN SHREVE, SO A SURVEY WAS CONDUCTED TO SEE JUST WHO LEFT AND WHY. A HIGH ACHIEVER THAT LEFT WAS KEN MONK. HE AGREED THAT HIS EDUCATION WOULD BE MORE ENHANCED IF HE LEFT LOUISIANA. TO HIM THE SCHOOLS IN LOUISIANA JUST DIDN'T COMPARE WITH THE SCHOOLS HE APPLIED TO. THESE SCHOOLS WERE TEXAS A&M, HIS NUMBER ONE CHOICE, DUKE, AND UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA. THERE WAS JULIE JANGULA. THE COLLEGES OF HER CHOICE WERE DUKE, RICE, RHODES, AND A SPECIAL MEDICAL PROGRAM AT THE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY IN ST. LOUIS. JULIE WAS LOOKING FOR A SCHOOL WITH A GOOD PRE-MED PROGRAM AND ONE THAT WOULD OFFER A WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY FOR RESEARCH. SHE FELT THAT THERE WAS NOTHING WRONG WITH LOUISIANA; IN FACT, SHE HAD EVEN CONSIDERED LSU. SHE STATED, "I WANT TO BROADEN MY HORIZONS." WHETHER A STUDENT STAYED IN LOUISIANA OR CHOSE TO GO OUT OF STATE, IT WAS ALL FOR THE PURSUIT OF THE BEST EDUCATION POSSIBLE.

ON OCTOBER 15, 1987 PROFESSIONAL NFL FOOTBALL PLAYERS CRAWLED BACK TO THEIR LOCKER ROOMS AFTER A FRUITLESS TWENTY-ONE DAY STRIKE. THE LEAGUE HUMBLED ITS MEGA-BUCK STARS WHEN PLAYERS RETURNED TO WORK WITH OUT A NEW CONTRACT AND FORCING THEM TO SIT OUT A WEEK WHILE STRIKE BREAKERS PLAYED PARODIES, OR AS MANY PEOPLE CALLED THEM , SCAB GAMES. THE PLAYERS LOST THE STRIKE HANDS DOWN; MORE THAN 10% OF THE PLAYERS CROSSED THE PICKET LINE.

WHEN THE STRIKE WAS OVER AND NEGOTIATIONS WERE SETTLED COMPLETELY, IT GAVE STRIKING PLAYERS LITTLE OR NOTHING OF WHAT THEY ASKED FOR. ONLY THE FRUSTRATIONS OF HUMBLY RETURNING TO A TEAM AND WORKING WITH "PICKET LINE CROSSERS" OR "SCABS" WAS WHAT WAITED FOR STRIKING PLAYERS. WITH THIS PROBLEM SETTLED SO UNFAIRLY, IT WAS BELIEVED THAT THE SAME PROBLEMS WOULD FESTER SOON AGAIN.

FOR WHEN THE TIME COMES

THERE WAS SOME CONTROVERSY GOING ON BETWEEN STUDENTS ABOUT WHICH ENGLISH CLASS THEY HAD TAKEN-A.P. (ADVANCED PLACEMENT) OR ENRICHED. BOTH CLASSES WERE FULFILLING, BUT THERE WERE SOME DIFFERENCES. A FEW STUDENTS AGREED TO SHARE THEIR OPINIONS ABOUT WHICH CLASS THEY HAD CHOSEN. CRAIG LANG BELIEVED THAT TAKING A.P. WAS THE BEST THING TO DO TO PREPARE FOR COLLEGE. CRAIG WANTED TO TAKE THE A.P. EXAM, SO POSSIBLY HE COULD GET OUT OF FRESHMEN ENGLISH IN COLLEGE. TRICIA TEDFORD ALSO TOOK A.P. ENGLISH. SHE EXPLAINED A FEW OF THE "EXTRAS" OF A.P. ENGLISH AS COMPARED TO ENRICHED. SHE STATED THAT THERE WERE MANY MORE ESSAYS, SOMETIMES THREE AND FOUR ON ONE DAY, AND THAT ALOT OF THESE ESSAYS WERE ORAL. SHE ALSO EXPLAINED HOW A.P. HAD A READING LIST OVER THE SUMMER. TRICIA AGREED THAT IT WAS DIFFICULT, AND THAT IT WAS EASY TO GET BOGGED DOWN AS WELL, BUT THAT WHENEVER THAT HAPPENED DR. SHAW WOULD "EASE UP." ON THE OTHER HAND, THERE WERE THOSE STUDENTS WHO TOOK ENRICHED ENGLISH. TODD TAMPLIN EXPLAINED THAT THERE WERE TWO REASONS WHY HE DID NOT TAKE A.P.. ONE WAS BECAUSE HE DID NOT TAKE TEAM, AND THE OTHER WAS BECAUSE HE FELT THAT HIS SCHEDULE DID NOT ALLOW ENOUGH TIME FOR A.P.. MONIQUE FRAZIER WAS ANOTHER ENRICHED ENGLISH STUDENT. SHE DID NOT WANT TO TAKE A.P. BECAUSE SHE FELT IT WAS TOO MUCH TO DO, AND SHE DID NOT WANT HASSLE HER SENIOR YEAR.

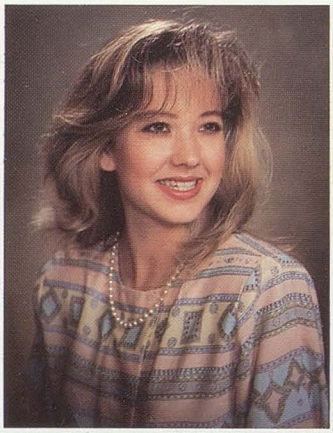

WHETHER IT WAS A.P. OR ENRICHED, ALL OF THESE STUDENTS ARE SURE TO REAP THE BENEFITS OF ALL THEIR HARD WORK.

WHEN SENIORS WERE ASKED, "WHAT DO YOU WANT TO GO INTO WHEN YOU GO TO COLLEGE?," MANY OF THEM DID NOT HAVE AN ANSWER JUST YET. SOME OF OUR SENIORS KNEW THOUGH. SENIOR MELANIE BARTHOLD WAS ASKED AND RESPONDED VERY QUICKLY WITH, "I WANT TO BE A COMMERCIAL ART MAJOR. I LIKE DESIGNS AND LOGOS. I GUESS I JUST LIKE ART." MANY SENIORS WANTED TO GO INTO PHYSICAL THERAPY. KIRK CASON SAID, "I WANT TO GET INTO THE MEDICAL FIELD." KIRK DECIDED ON PHYSICAL THERAPY BECAUSE "YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE ON CALL, YOU DON'T HAVE TO WORK ON THE WEEKENDS, OR AT LEAST NOT MUCH, YOU GET OFF WORK AROUND 4:30 OR 5:00, AND IT'S GOOD PAY." JOHN CARRUTH AND TONYA BROWN WERE ALSO THINKING OF GOING INTO PHYSICAL THERAPY. ONE OTHER CAREER CHOICE WAS CHOSEN BY SENIOR, CHRIS CAFFAREL, "I'M GOING TO GO TO THE ARMY."

ON OCTOBER 24, 1987 THE PRIMARY ELECTION FOR LOUISIANA'S GOVERNOR WAS HELD. THERE WAS MUCH CONTROVERSY LEADING UP TO THIS ELECTION.

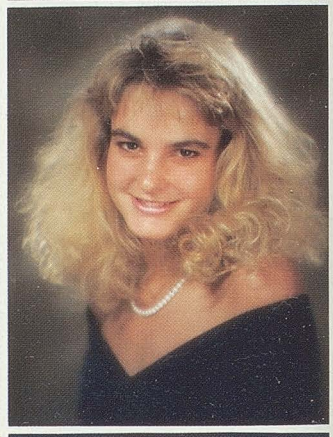

GOVERNOR EDWIN EDWARDS WAS RUNNING FOR HIS FOURTH TERM. BUDDY ROEMER, FROM THE SHREVEPORT AREA, WAS SECOND. LIVINGSTON AND TAUZIN WERE ALSO CONTENDERS FOR THE OFFICE.

SURPRISING EVERYONE, ROEMER TOOK THE LEAD AND WAS AHEAD OF EDWARDS BY OVER 50,000 VOTES AFTER THE RESULTS WERE CALCULATED. LIVINGSTON AND TAUZIN THEN ANNOUNCED THEIR SUPPORT FOR ROEMER IN THE UP COMING RUN-OFF ELECTION. UPON HEARING THAT, AT 1:30 A.M. THE FOLLOWING MORNING, GOVERNOR EDWIN EDWARDS ANNOUNCED THAT HE WOULD NOT REMAIN IN THE RACE FOR GOVERNOR. HE STATED THAT IT WOULD BE BEST FOR LOUISIANA TO CONCEDE AND GIVE HIS SUPPORT TO ROEMER. BUDDY ROEMER BECAME GOVERNOR ROEMER TO HIS SUPPORTERS' JOY. HE WOULD THEN BEGIN TO PREPARE FOR THE OATH OF OFFICE IN MARCH OF 1988.

ON AUGUST 3, 1987, AFTER FORTY-ONE DAYS OF TESTIMONY, THE IRAN — CONTRA HEARINGS WERE CLOSED. SO ENDED THE SO-CALLED FINAL CHAPTERS OF A SCANDAL THAT SHOOK THE REAGAN ADMINISTRATION AND THE WORLD. UNFORTUNATELY, THE CLOSING OF THE IRAN-CONTRA TRIALS WAS ONLY A NEW BEGINNING FOR NEW REVALATIONS.

RYAN REDSTONE
JULIE REEVES

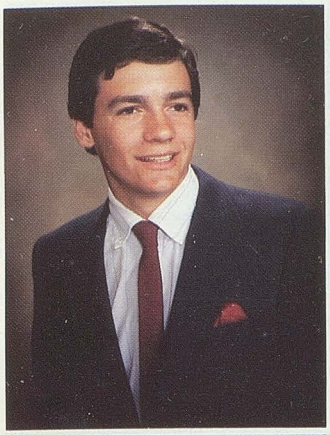

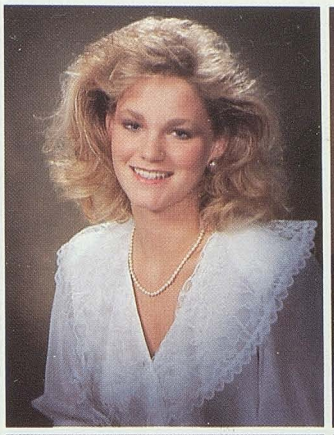

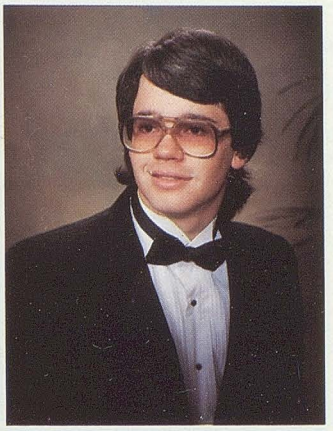

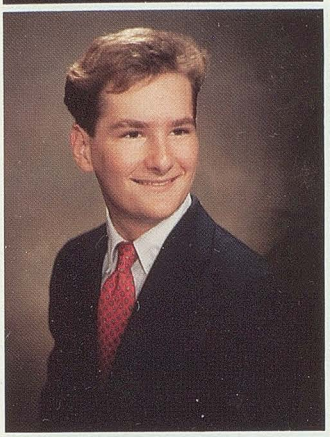

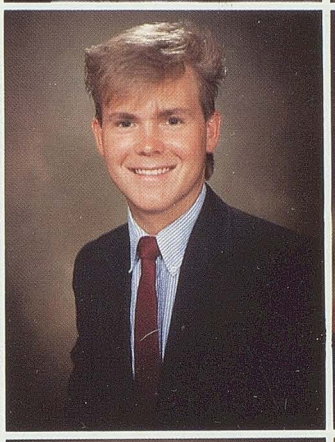

WHAT HAD SURFACED FROM WEEKS OF TELEVISED HEARINGS WAS FAR FROM COMPLETE AND NOT UNLIKE THE JUMBLED PIECES OF A JIGSAW PUZZLE WITH VITAL PIECES OF MISSING. FOR INSTANCE, WHEN THE HOUSE AND SENATE INVESTIGATING COMMITEE RELEASED THEIR REPORT ON THE IRAN-CONTRA AFFAIR THE PANDORA'S BOX OF SCANDALS WOULD REOPEN. ACCORDING TO U.S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORTS, INVESTIGATORS HAD FOUND NEW EVIDENCE SHOWING HOW OFFICIALS OF THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL STAFF AND THE CIA "SHORT CIRCULATED" OFFICIAL PENTAGON ARMS-SUPPLY CHANNELS TO GET MISSLES TO IRAN. THERE WOULD BE FRESH EVIDENCE QUESTIONING LT. COL. OLIVER NORTH ABOUT THE DIMENSIONS OF ARMS-SALES PROFITS TO NICARAGUAN REBELS. COMMITEE INSIDERS, WHOSE JOB IT WAS TO UNEARTH DISCREPANCIES, SAID THEY WERE PREPARED FOR CRITISISM; THEY FEAR CONTROVERSY AS WELL.

IT WAS UNKNOWN WHETHER OR NOT THE WHOLE TRUTH WOULD EVER BE DISCOVERED BY THESE INVESTIGATIONS, BUT THERE WAS ONE THING FOR CERTAIN ABOUT THESE SCANDALS — THEY SENT SHOCK WAVES THROUGH THE NATION AND ITS PEOPLE.

BUT YOU'LL SOON SEE THE LIGHT

A STUDENT JUGGLING FIFTEEN BOOKS IN ONE HAND, READING A NOVEL OUT OF THE OTHER, TALKING TO A TEACHER, AND WALKING DOWN THE HALL TO A MEETING THAT STARTED FIVE SECONDS AGO WAS NOT AN UNCOMMON SIGHT AT CAPTAIN SHREVE. MANY STUDENTS HAD A HARD TIME JUGGLING THEIR CLASSES WITH THEIR CLUBS, SPORTS, AND SOCIAL LIFE. SOMETIMES IT ALL SEEMED HOPLESS — RUNNING TO MEETINGS, SELLING CANDY, DECORATING FOR DANCES, AND RUSHING TO MEET DEADLINES. IT NEVER ENDED; EVEN WHEN IT WAS TIME TO GO HOME, THERE WAS STILL LOADS OF NEVER — ENDING HOMEWORK.

WHEN ASKED ABOUT HER HECTIC SCHEDULE, JENNIFER MOORE SAID, " SOMETIMES I DON'T GO TO BED UNTIL 12:00. I KNOW MY DAY GETS HECTIC, BUT I DON'T THINK I'D HAVE IT ANY OTHER WAY."

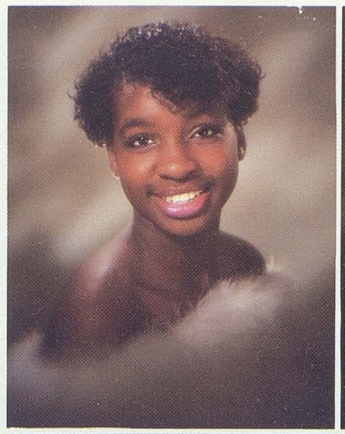

FOOTBALL PLAYER, SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT, AND STUDENT COUNCIL PARLIMENTARIAN, TREY COX COMMENTS, " THE REASON WHY I'VE PLACED SUCH A HEAVY LOAD ON MYSELF IS THAT I THINK THE HARDER MY SENIOR YEAR IN HIGH SCHOOL IS THE EASIER MY FRESHMAN YEAR IN COLLEGE WILL BE."

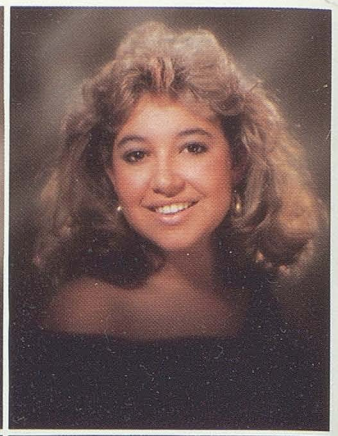

JODIE KALMBACH, DRAMA STUDENT AND CO-EDITOR OF THE NEWSPAPER, HAD THIS TO SAY, " I'LL GET TO SCHOOL AT 7:00 FOR NEWSPAPER AND WON'T LEAVE SCHOOL UNTIL 9;00 BECAUSE OF PLAY PRACTICE. I FEEL NO MATTER HOW HARD MY LIFE MAY SEEM, I KNOW I'VE GOTTEN EVERYTHING OUT OF IT THAT I PUT IN."

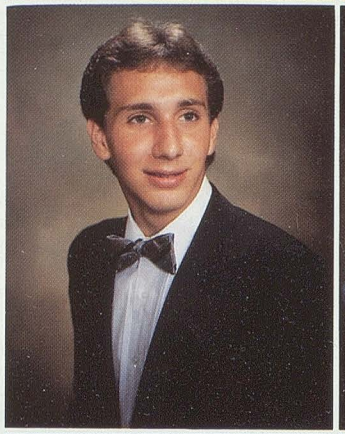

THE SENIORS OF '88 HAD HIGH EXPECTATIONS FOR THEMSELVES, AND PART OF FULFILLING THEIR EXPECTATIONS WAS GIVING IT ALL THEY HAD. IN THE LONG RUN, THEY KNEW IT WOULD ALL PAY OFF.

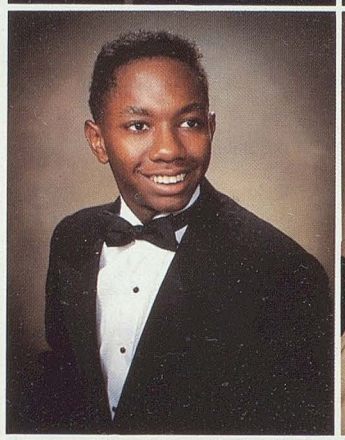

SHAJUANIA RUSSELL IS SLOWLY BUT SURELY LEARNING TO COPE WITH THE MAIN PROBLEM OF MANY SENIORS — A HECTIC SCHEDULE!

"1987-88" was a great year for underclassmen. The freshmen really enjoyed their first year as gators. They sold pictures with Santa Gator at Christmas and sponsored candy sales to raise money. Sophomores sponsored fund-raisers for their Junior Prom. The Junior class also sold candy for their prom, and they bought their Senior rings. In all, 1987-88 was a very prosperous year for the underclassmen.

On September 17, 1987, a fifty million dollar KC-10 refueling tanker loaded with 63,000 pounds of jet fuel exploded at Barksdale Air Force Base. The explosion was to blame for the death of one man, and sixteen injuries. Joseph Burgio, who had been working on the engine of the plane when it exploded, was pronounced dead on arrival at the Base's hospital. The explosion occurred at 4:45 p.m.,and the huge blaze was not conquered until two hours later. Most of the plane, except the tail, was destroyed. The cause of this tragic explosion was unknown.

Why was it that when the dating scene was hot, dating someone of the same age was not? During the 1987-88 school year the students at Captain Shreve who fell in love were usually in love with someone in the grade above or below them. The question previously asked was and will never be answered. Obviously it was just a matter of who was more enjoyable to be around, who had the best personality, and possibly who had the best looks. For example many times through the halls you could have seen a junior boy holding the hand of a senior girl, or you might have seen a freshman boy taking a junior girl to one of the football games. Some more examples are sophomore girls dating senior boys and sophomore boys dating junior girls. Of course there were those students who preferred to date their peers, but whatever the case the students at Captain Shreve seemed happy with their choice.

ABOVE: One day before school was out, Fred Moss and Rolanda Dugas decide to prove that dating someone of a different age can and does work out.

THE SOPHOMORES SAY:

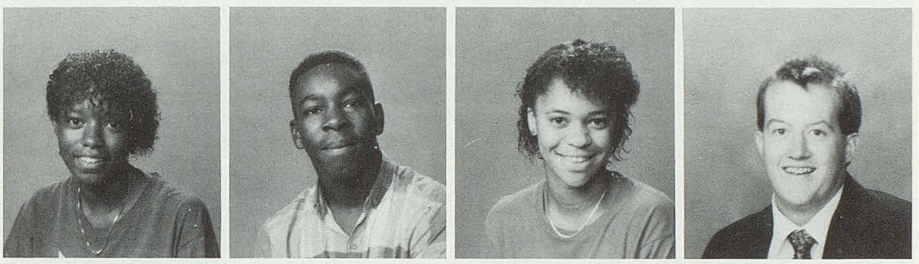

WE ARE PROUD AND WE'RE NOT TINY

Voters were never sure who they wanted in the White House next, but some people did know what they wanted in a president. Many people thought that an "ideal" president would be one who would cut the federal debt, reduce the threat of nuclear war, stand firm on defense, and be honest.

Among the Democrats, people were asked to name a first choice and over half the people did not. The others picked Jesse Jackson above Mario Cuomo.

Among the Republicans, people confirmed that George Bush would be the front runner.

JUNIORS SAY:

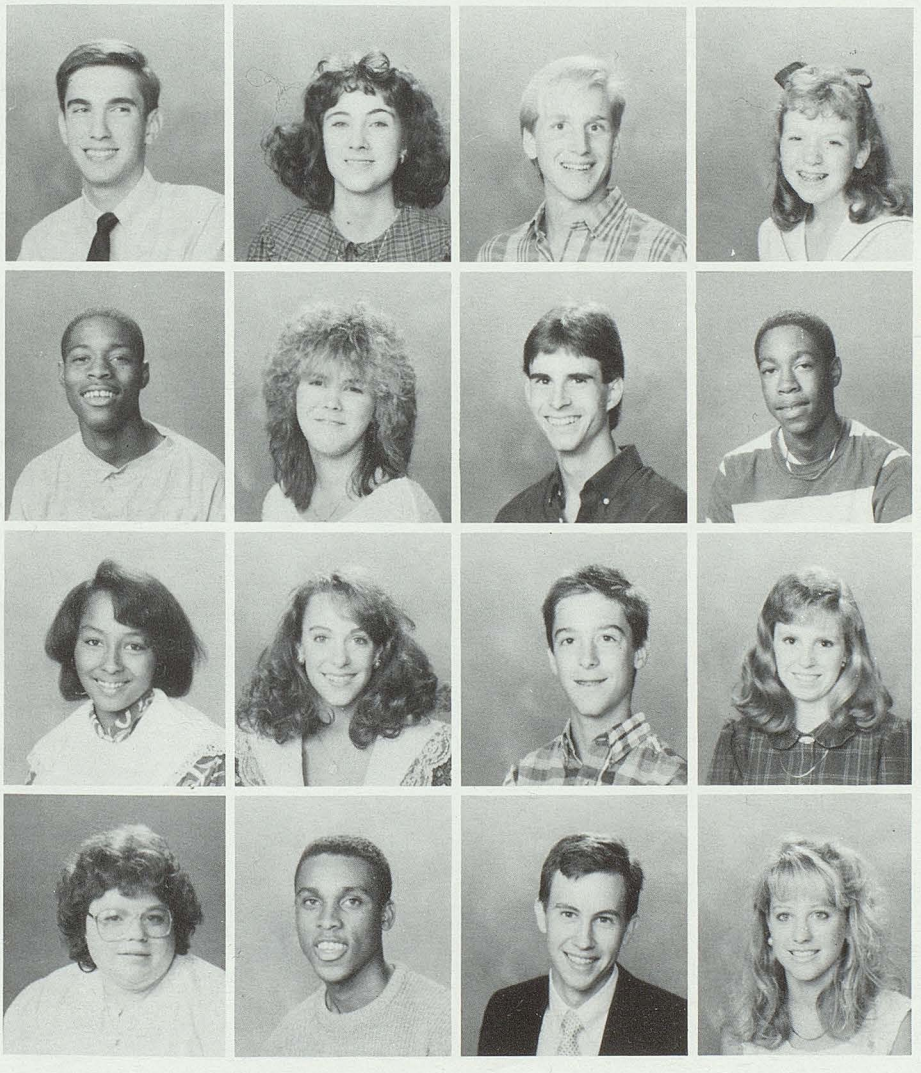

The normal classes for freshmen included Algebra I and physical science. The sophomores took biology and geometry. Juniors took chemistry and Algebra II. Seniors took advanced math and physics. However, some honor students chose to take classes which were above their level. For example, many freshmen took biology and geometry, which were usually sophomore classes. The students were able to do this because they got credit for certain classes in eighth grade. Stephen Cox, a freshman, took algebra in eighth grade and so he took geometry his freshman year. He felt that being an advanced student would help him in college. Betsy McArthur, a junior, took physics and advanced math. She said, "It was a lot of extra work, but it gave me a sense of accomplishment to know I did well in a senior class."

In 1987, Supreme Court nominee, Douglas Ginsburg, ruined his respect and his support when he surprisedly admitted to smoking marijuana during the 1960's and 1970's. The initial reaction from the admission was that the revelation would not damage his conservative base of support. Most of the key Republican senators that Ginsburg talked to seemed to support him, but then there were some who thought that people who were nominated to the Supreme Court should respect the law. Through much harassment and misunderstanding, Ginsburg stepped down from his nomination, proved again that your past can come back and haunt you.

A survey was conducted of underclassmen to determine their favorite required classes and why it was their favorite. Surprisingly, Math topped the list. Mitzi Golden and John Mazziotti, both sophomores, prefer math. Mitzi likes geometry best. "I do well in that class since Mrs. Warren is such a good teacher," she says. John's reason for preferring Algebra II is simple — "I enjoy math!" Jennifer Dalton, a junior, says her favorite class is American history,"Since Mrs. McDougle makes it interesting." Ronnie Washington, a freshman chose English since he likes the subject best. Most students agreed that a good teacher can make any subject their favorite.

STRIVING TO BE MORE

"Towards the end of 1987, Shreveport Mayor John Hussey gave his annual "state of the city" address. The mayor said that the city was still undergoing a major economic transition, but that efforts to improve the economy were beginning to pay off. As a result of the new expansion, 1130 permanent jobs were created.

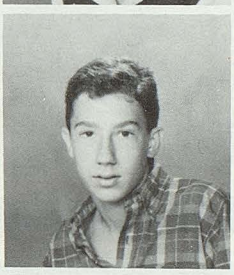

In the past, Shreveport was mainly based on oil and gas production, but it evolved into more of a manufacturing community when General Electric and Western Electric moved here. However, the 1980's brought economic despair to Shreveport, when oil and gas prices dropped and when the plants had to lay off 3000 people. To counter this downfall, the city installed an eight point development plan which included new programs and foundations. Hussey said the new programs were gradually working, but to remember that economic transitions don't take place overnight.

The cafeteria had a new look this year. In the past, the cafeteria furniture consisted of long, white, rectangular tables and drab green chairs. This year, in order to update the cafeteria's image, the old funiture was replaced. The new tables were of various shapes — rectangular, circular, pentagon, hexagon, octagon, and were wood colored. The chairs were bright yellow, orange, or green color. The new furniture was definitely an improvement and helped the cafeteria because it had more visual appeal.

Senator Richard Neeson won the Senator election again against Ron Bean. The race was about as close as it would get, with Neeson's 50.2% to Bean's 49.8%. Being so close, Neeson said, "I really don't know if I won it." He also said he would support Governor-elect Buddy Roemer. Neeson fueled his campaign with more than $30,000 in personal loans. Both of these men ran low-profile campaigns in the run off.

Science fair projects were done this year either for extra credit or required by the teacher. In the past, students did a new project each year. Some of the Seniors and Juniors complained because they had a hard time finding a new project each year.

In the 1987-1988 school year, the Science teachers came up with a new system. The new freshmen get to break up the project every year. They picked one subject for all four years. Their first year, as freshmen, they only had to find their topic and turn in bibliographies. Their sophomore year they turned in their research paper. As juniors, they turned in the whole project with their experiment. Finally, their senior year, they expanded on their Science Fair Project. Hopefully, this new system would work out for the best.

Shreveport and Bossier City were a long way from the John H. Overton Lock and Dam on the Red River southeast of Alexandria. However, the distance grew shorter because of navigation channel work. The only drawback was the mud that resulted from some heavy storms. Senator Bennett Johnston estimated the construction time would be shorter than the construction of the other Louisiana dams because the Senate voted overwhelmingly for a water developing bill that earmarked $104 million. These funds would allow U.S. Army Corps of Engineers to design the final two locks and dams at Natchitoches and Shreveport. Navigation would then be possible to Shreveport and Bossier by 1993, seven years earlier than originally planned. When this project was completed, Shreveport-Bossier City, Louisiana not only became economically stronger but also became connected to the world.

WORK TOGETHER

This year along with all the other added extras of Captain Shreve was the BMR, otherwise known as the Behavioral Management Room. A student was sent here when he or she broke one of the school rules. The BMR resembled in-school-suspension. The students assigned to this room were required to do work from each of their classes and they also had to remain isolated there all day. Teachers would send students there just for that one class if they were becoming too much of a problem. Of course, they would get restroom breaks, but they would be escorted by a chaperon. These unfortunate students had to eat lunch by themselves. This "punishment" proved to be a successful method of teaching those students a lesson.

In 1988, Highland Hospital moved its whole operation to the new Highland Clinic in Northeast Shreveport. They moved into a thirty-two million dollar building on the corner of Bert Kounds and Millicent Way.

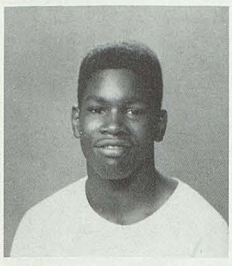

The hospital felt this was a move for the better. They felt the city grew towards the South and would help their business. The hospital also had room to grow and the doctors had a modern building to work in. Furthermore, the hospital had more beds and more surgeons to help improve their medical profession.

One week after the Thanksgiving Holiday most of the junior class of Captain Shreve, along with a few seniors headed for Washington, D.C.. This trip was otherwise known as CLOSEUP. They departed on December 6. The week they spent in the capital was known as International week. A couple of the other states that attended during this week also were Missouri and Colorado. Each student paid a total of $915.00 with a deposit of $75.00. The Shreve's chaperones that went were Ms. Georgia Lee, Mrs. Jo Amy Wynn, and Mr. Mike Johnson. This group of students and chaperones stayed in the Twin-Bridges Marriott. In each room there were two students from one state and two students from another state. CLOSEUP gave these students an opportunity to learn all about their government and the people in it in an interesting yet educational way. It also gave our students a chance to meet students from other states which helped them to expand their knowledge even more.

It was a year when money was tight, and the airlines were no exception. Delta, Continental, Northwest, Eastern, and United jacked up their prices because of the failing economy. They said that fuel cost more. Analysis said that the airlines wanted a cushion in case the turbulent stock market discouraged travel. In any event, prices went up about $20 for a round trip less than 500 miles, and even more for a longer flight. There were some exceptions though, mostly vacation sites. Delta, United, and Continental did not raise prices on trips to Hawaii. In 1987, prices were high in order to fly.

One of the many new additions at Shreve in 1987-1988 was a homework hotline. The hotline was installed in order to help students who had trouble with their homework. Forty honor students volunteered to be on the receiving end of the hotline. The students alternated nights and worked from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. answering their fellow Gators' questions. Was it successful? Certainly! The calls were slow at first, but as more students learned of the hotline, the calls became more frequent. The volunteers all felt good about helping others. Betsy McArthur, a junior volunteer, said, "If we helped one person with a problem, then all the work we put into it was worthwhile."

Robert Bork was nominated by President Reagan, July 1, 1987, to fill the spot vacated by Justice Lewis F. Powell, Jr., who stepped down the previous week, citing his age. Robert Bork was reviewed by the Senate Judicial Committee. His nomination was rejected on the recommendations of committee members. It was feared that his subjective ideas on women's and minority's rights were too narrow. This opinion was formed from Bork due to statements made during his tenure as a professor at Yale Law School. Herman Schwartz of American University was quoted as saying, "He is an extreme ultra-conservative ideologue." Bork's rejection is a reflection of the concern of many Americans for those who sit in power and make judgments concerning our constitutional rights.

Herbert John Gleason, better known as Jackie Gleason, made his mark in the world of entertainment. Gleason was born on February 26, 1916, in the Brooklyn's Bushwick Section. When Gleason was a teen, he performed at pool halls, was an emcee for the neighborhood theater, and was known as "the toast of Bushwick." At the age of twenty, Gleason was a hot name in the club scene. As Gleason got older, his career began to skyrocket. He was doing shows such as: The Life of Riley, Cavalcada of Stars, and at 36 years old, he had his own show, The Jackie Gleason Show and The Honeymooners. In 1970, Gleason switched to the movies. He was in: The Toy, Soldier in the Rain, Smokey and the Bandit, and many more.

Although his career was in great shape, his health was not. Gleason smoked six packs of cigarettes a day and drank heavily. After a three-month battle with cancer, Gleason died peacefully in his Fort Lauderdale, Florida home. Gleason, age 71, was a talented man who will be remembered for his style and all of his contributions to the world of entertainment.

Lt. Col. Oliver North stood alone as the sacrificed knight in the Iran arms gambit, a true believer steeled and scarred by a lifetime of have-guns-will travel missions. He was just about always in the "nerve center" of planning for such missions as the invasion of Grenada and the picking of targets for the bombing raid on Libya. North's work on the National Security Council was very hush-hush. When his role in aiding the contras in Nicaragua was first disclosed, vandals poisoned the family dog and North was forced to move his family to quarters on a military base. At the White House, he was famous for constant devotion to duty that often stretched to 18 hours a day. Now did this Marine Lt. Col. take the blame for aiding the contras, or was he just following orders?

The Fall of 1987 brought with it a new fashion trend — short skirts. The skirts were a revival of the 1960's miniskirt fad. They ranged from just below the knee to thigh high. Before the revival, short skirts were only used for casual wear. The new skirts however, came in many dressy materials and were worn for all occassions, from the workplace to the cocktail party to the prom. Many girls at Shreve were happy with the new trend in short skirts, and the boys certainly did not mind either.

On October 14, Jessica McClure, 18-months-old, was playing with four other toddlers at her Aunt's day-care center in Midland, Texas, and slipped and fell in an abandoned well shaft. Her mother had left for one moment when she heard the other kids screaming. When she came back, she found her daughter in the well. After calling the police, they came within moments but really couldn't do anything. The police and rescue workers started ordering equipment to help Jessica, but they did not know how far down she was. David Libby, 51, a special investigator with the U.S. Mine Safety and Health Administration, became the rescue director of this incident. He decided they would have to drill to the side of Jessica instead of straight down on top of her. After fifty-seven and one-half hours of working and drilling Jessica was brought up from the well. This was one of the most moving times these people will ever experience. Jessica's rescue was a powerful unforgettable memory.

THE GO

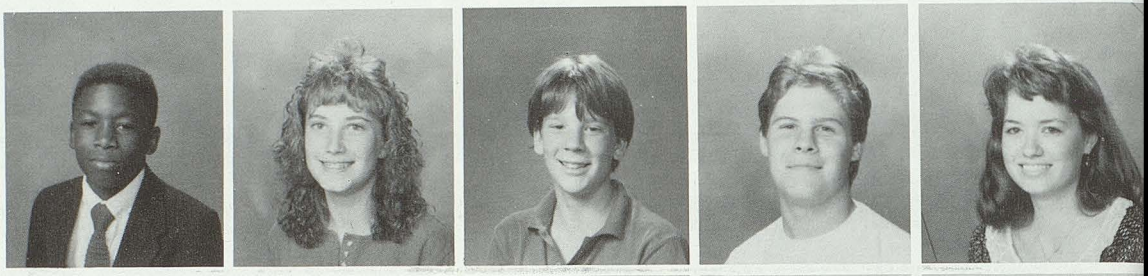

The new craze for the 1987-88 year was the new laser game called Photon. All Gators were doing this new game. Photon was a space age laser game with a light show and music to fit the mood. Photon was located on the Shreveport — Barksdale road in Bossier. This game consisted of two teams of eight to ten players. They were given a Photon laser gun, a box to strap across their chest to pick up the laser, and a helmet. The object of the game was to score as many points as possible. This was done either by shooting your opponents or the "ball" at your opponents homebase three times consecutively. If you were shot three times then you could not shoot your gun for five seconds. This 87-88 craze was a huge success.

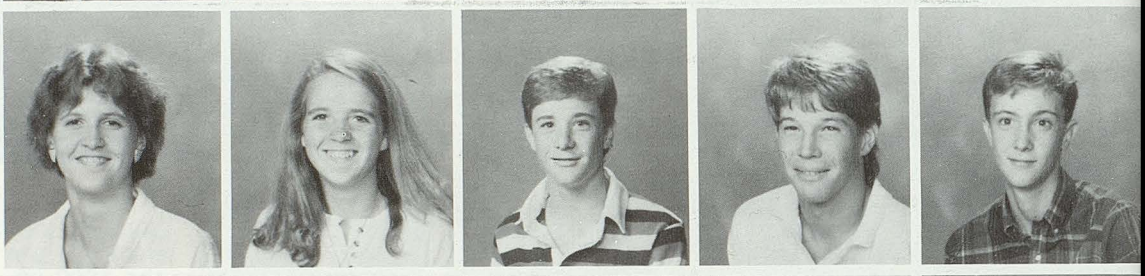

ABOVE: In between classes, a couple of Shreve students dicuss the new and exciting game of Photon.

WITH ACTIVITIES

In mid November of 1987, 1000 Cuban refugees in an Oakdale Louisiana Detention Center rioted and took hostages. The unrest began after an agreement to deport some of the prisoners back to Cuba was announced at dinner. The inmates began to throw their trays and grab the guards. They then used homemade weapons to control their hostages. The $17 million center was set ablaze and more than half of the buildings were destroyed. The prisoners wanted to make sure that they would not be sent back to Cuba, and this was one of the terms in the peace agreement signed on November 29, 1987. Everyone was satisfied with the agreement and the prisoners were sent to various detention centers.

JUST BEGUN

On Saturday, November 14, 1987, many honor students from Shreve attended a leadership conference sponsored by the Captain Shreve PTA and the Junior League of Shreveport. All students at Shreve were invited to the conference, but most of the people who went were leaders at Shreve. They were the officers of all Shreve's organizations, and they listened to lectures about their corresponding offices. For example, secretaries learned about taking minutes and presidents learned about making agendas. All the students who attended listened to guest speakers talk about leadership, time management, and goal setting. Each leader was given a folder with information on all the topics covered. The course proved to be a valuable experience for all who attended.

ITS UPS AND DOWNS

1987 was the year of the New Orleans Saints. For the first time in its history the Saints posted a winning season and cruised into the playoffs. Led by quarterback, Bobby Hebert, the offense was powered by an awesome running game. Reuben Mayes and Dalton Hilliard could do no wrong in running up the score on opponents. But the defense was the real key to the successful season: blocking punts, passes, and extra points, causing fumbles and intercepting passes. The special teams blocked punts or field goals in six of their first eight games. Only a Saint could do such a deed.

The job outlook for college graduates was good in 1987, despite the stock market crash that rocked the nation. Employers that were questioned after the crash planned to hire 3.8 percent more college graduates that year, with starting salaries for graduates with bachelor's degrees averaging $22,600. Chemical engineering and electrical engineering jobs were in high demand and the pay was excellent. The greatest increase in demand was for graduates majoring in hotel, restaurant and institution management, up to 4.3 percent from the previous year.

DYNAMITE!

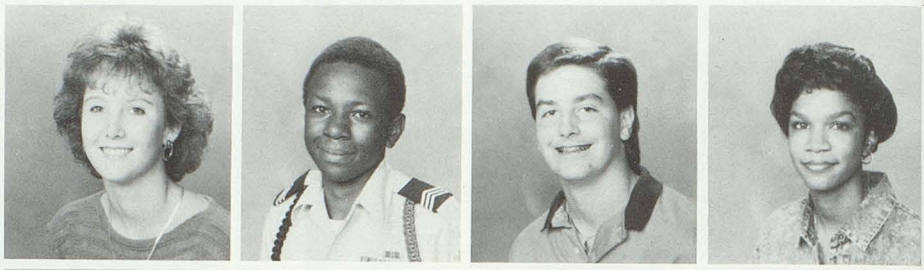

Shreveport often had tornado warnings but on November 15, one of the warnings became a reality. At least two tornadoes touched down and left destruction in their paths. The Southern Hills area received the most damage. Not only were trees uprooted, but houses and roofs and mobile homes were ripped to shreds. Other neighboring towns, such as Keatchie, were hit by tornadoes. Damage throughout the state was so heavy that the governor declared a state of emergency. The damage was repaired as soon as possible. Thanks to all the city workers who rushed to the aid, victims said that the one positive effect that the tornado brought was the community becoming one in the time of crisis.

The 1987-1988 school year had many changes in the schedule. First of all, school started on September 1, instead of August 19. That gave students more time to enjoy their summer and avoided the Labor Day holiday. But to make up for the extra days, time had to be taken away from other vacations. So instead of two weeks for Christmas, the students were given one-and-a-half weeks off. It really was a no-win situation because students, parents and teachers complained either way.

Foreign travel, especially for the first time was an experience you would never forget. Students from any grade were welcome to go in a group to different foreign countries. Mrs. Sheri Childs, the junior counselor, took a group of interested students to a new place each summer. The Cultural Heritage Alliance was the sponsor that allowed students from all over to travel to foreign countries.

The summer of 1987, Mrs. Childs took a group of about twenty students to Austria, Germany, and Switzerland. They were there for a total of ten days which cost over $1200. There were Cultural Heritage Alliance tour guides who were friendly and helpful and were willing to answer any questions. The summer of 1988 Mrs. Childs took a group of interested students to Italy. Each summer she explored a new place which provided the students she took with not only excitement but also an educational experience.

Yoko Hoshi was from Japan, Dimas Gamboa was from Spain, Juan Bedoya was from Columbia, and Napoleon Torabilla was from Bolivia. These students came to Captain Shreve to study and perfect their English skills. Each student was classified as a senior and took a variety of classes. English being most important. These students lived with families who volunteered to let them live in their homes.

Football

Although the 1987 football season was not a prosperous one for the Gators, they must be commended for their hard work and neverending pride. Through all the hard times, the team stuck together and also learned that the memories and feelings they had for the game can be as important as winning itself.

Despite a good showing in the Caddo Parish Jamboree, the Gators fell to the West Monroe Rebels in their first game of the 1987 football season.

With eight minutes left in the game, the Gators tried to comeback with a flurry of passes. Quarterback Keo Ehrhardt , had two touchdown passes dropped by open receivers. Kevin Cash and Shane McPherson combined a total of 90 yards but that was not enough for the Gators.

The Gators were also stopped short by the Fair Park Indians. With just 7 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, the Indians scored the only points of the game on a 20-yard field goal.

Some outstanding players of the game were: Roderiek Frierson , Kevin Cash , and William Flakes .

The Gators entered the third game of the season looking to end a scoreless two-game-losing streak. Gator quarterback John Carruth scampered 46 yards for the first Gator touchdown of the year. The valiant efforts of the Gators were not enough to stop the Cowboys.

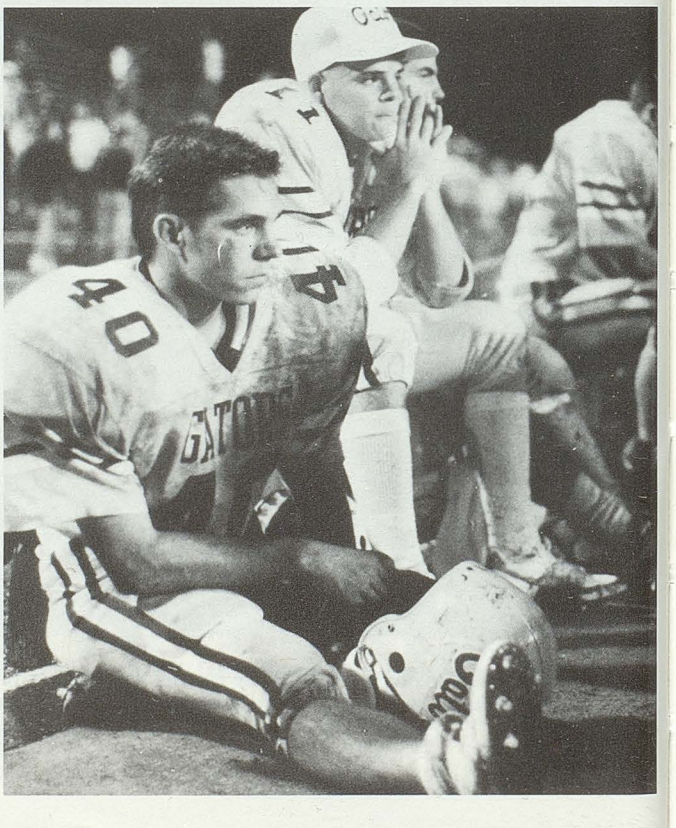

Although the Gators worked hard, they just couldn't get it together against the ninth ranked Ouachita Lions. Shane McPherson and William Flakes were the top Gator players of the game.

The Gators extended their losing streak in a 19-6 loss to Woodlawn. The Gator defense put on an impressive show and held the city's leading rusher to his second lowest performance of the year. The Gator score came when Roderick Frierson fumbled the ball into the end zone where John Carruth pounced on it for the touchdown.

With hopes of a winning season deminishing, the Gators were plaqued again by crucial errors in a loss to Natchitoches-Central. The Gators two scores were produced by Rodrick Frierson and Derrick Abner . Brent Hine caught a two point conversion from Keo Ehrhardt to tie the game. Wade Lollar intercepted a Chief pass and returned it 18 yards, but the Gators couldn't capitalize on the turnover.

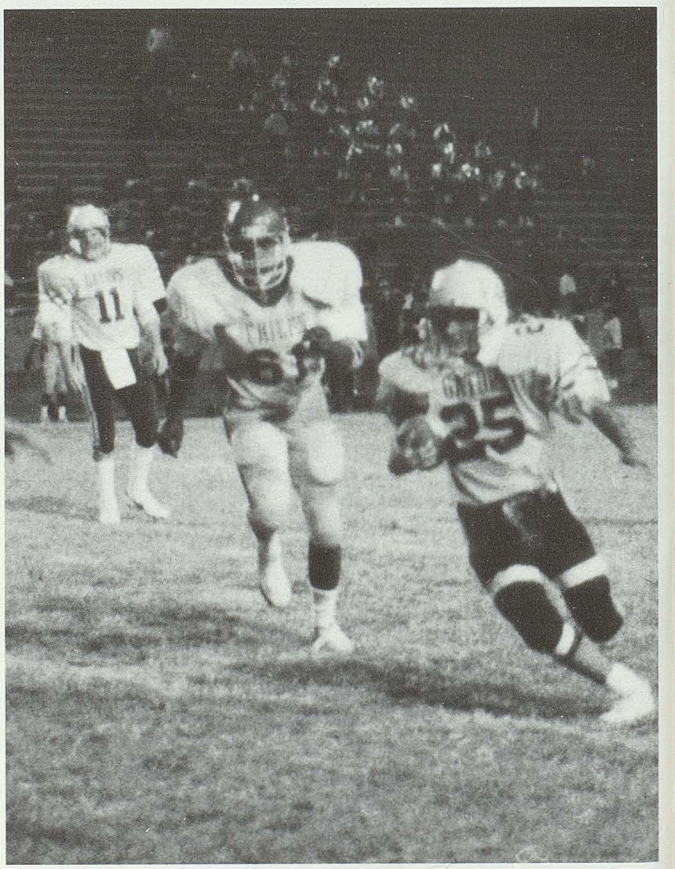

The Gators played like a different team but ran out of gas in the last minutes of the game against Bossier. The team went into the locker room with a 9-6 halftime lead. With time running out Bossier scored ending the Gators hopes of victory.

Parkway, Airline, and Green Oaks were also very disheartening losses for the Gators as they wound out the year.

Basketball

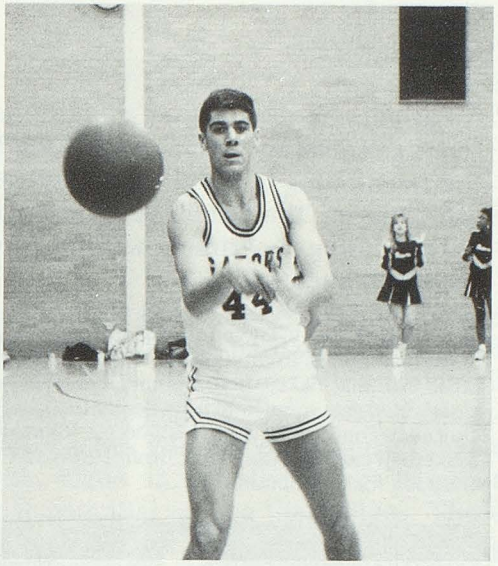

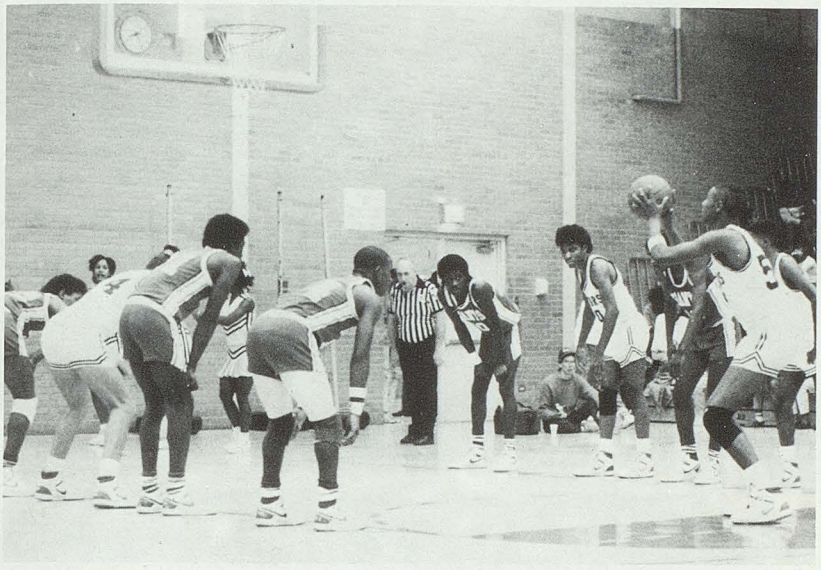

Once again, Coach David Boydstun had the Gators geared up and ready for this basketball season. Under his watchful eye, the Gators prepared with numerous hours on the practice court. This hard work and determination inevitably paid off one more time for Boydstun and the team. Their exhibition of good team work, good sportsmanship, and hard work, led the Gators to yet another prosperous season.

Early in the season, the Gators were led by the scoring of Tommy Traveler and Reni Mason and the rebounding of Kelvin Lovelace . As the season wore on, the Gators became more balanced in the scoring department which proved to be an asset to the team.

The 1987-1988 girls basketball team showed great determination and hard work in an effort to sharpen skills and improve the teams all around play. The Lady Gators, under the leadership of coaches Valinda Wolfe and Michaela Meredith, made an assertive effort to prove the great potential among themselves. These players, because of their excellent showing and good sportsmanship, gave visions of great things to come for the future of the girl's basketball team.

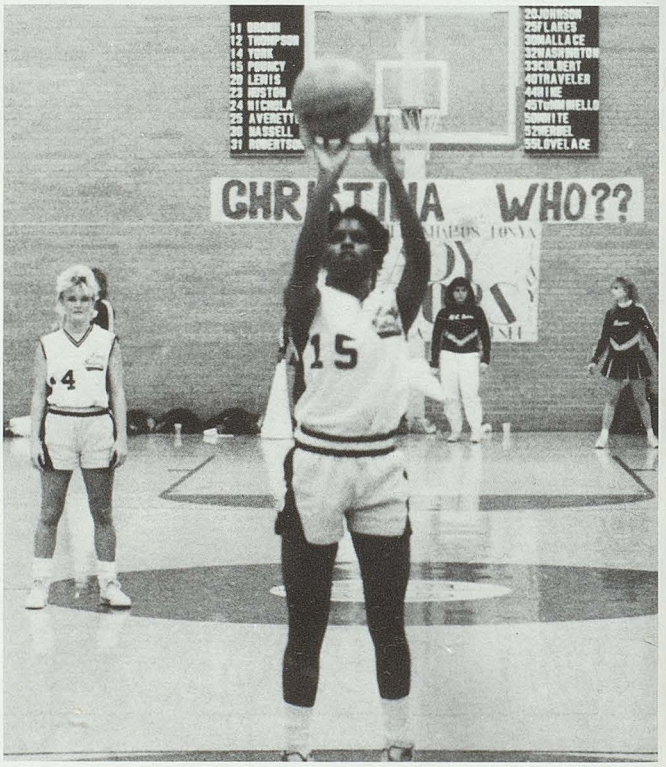

Top Right: Coaches Valinda Wolfe and Michaela Meredith watch the Lady Gators in action as they think about the strategy for the second half. 1988 was a year of rebuilding for the girls basketball team. This season was frustrating for the Lady Gators. The girls lost many very close games by the small margin of one or two points.The Lady Gators played some of the top teams and players in the area. The team took on powerhouses like Green Oaks, who were the state runners up last year. They were also pitted against top players such as, Parkway's Christina Ball, Huntington's Theresa Foster and strong players from defending State Champions, the Natchitoches Central Chiefs. Never giving up, the Lady Gators fought hard in every game no matter what the situation.

A great addition for the Gators was the fact that many of the young players were potential returnees for the 1989 season. This was the case in strong and athletic junior, Sharon Pouncy. Aggressive guards, Nikki York and Renee Robertson also plan to return along with sophomore Mylika Lewis. With the enlightning coaching of Valinda Wolfe and Michaela Meredith, the future looks bright for the Lady Gators.

Track

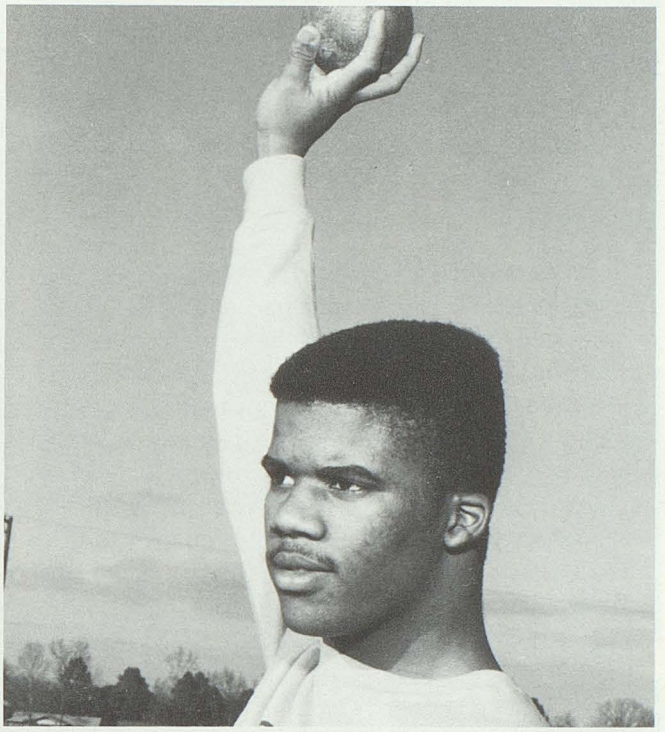

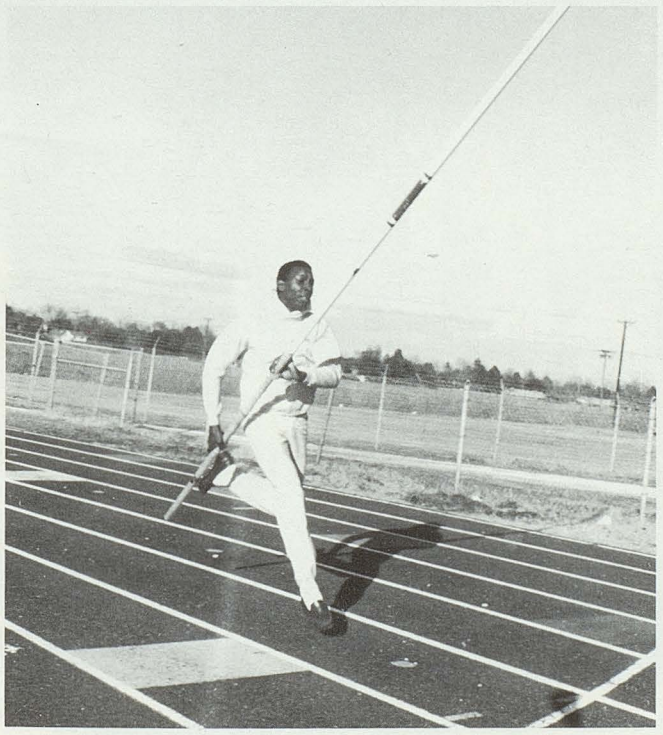

Under the direction of coach Martin Poole, the 1988 track team was composed of many talented athletes ready to fulfill their highest expectations. With the strength of the Gator team they were ready both mentally and physically for their meets. This year's track team went all out in their training and their running program. With this year's experience, the returning tracksters should be able to do very well.

The Gators proved themselves very competitive in all events throughout the year.

Under the guidance of Coach Martin Poole, the Gators won first at Doyle, first at district, and outstanding ninth at state. The Gators had a strong returning nucleus consisting of juniors Mark Bain and Wesley Jacobs. Their average practice was a seven mile run which helped to maintain their endurance throughout the year. This year's team members included: Amy Lockard, Catherine Pringle, David Scates, and Jennifer Young. The team members practiced three days a week before school and five days a week after school. Practices before school took the place of a Physical Education elective. The Captain Shreve Swim Team competed well this year and kept that Gator tradition going.

Softball

The Lady Gator softball team proved to be one of the best in the area. Determination and team unity were the main factors for their neverending success. After only losing four games in the in the past two years, the experienced Lady Gators worked hard for another outstanding season.

Ms. Joyce Jordan, Mrs. Jenny Badgely, and Ms. Michaela Meredith coached the Lady Gators in a way that proved to be victorious. They found valuable leadership in returning MVP senior pitcher, Brenda Dawson. Along with several other senior lettermen, who in the previous years were chosen to the All-District and All-City teams, Brenda Dawson led the Lady Gators to a triumphant and exciting season.

Soccer

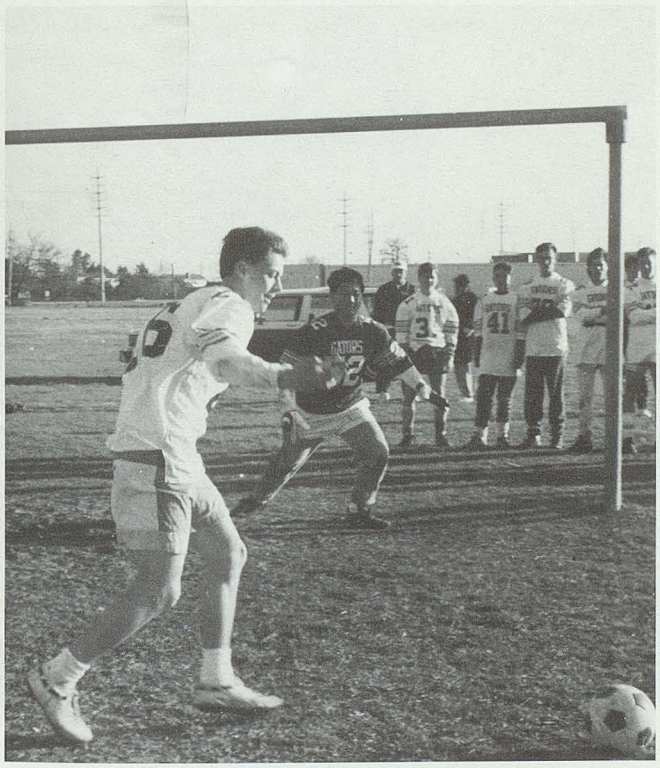

For years the Shreve students have requested that a soccer team be added to the Gator Athletic Program. The 1987-88 team was the first in Captain Shreve history and a good one at that. Cheerleaders

The 1987-88 Captain Shreve Cheerleaders worked hard throughout the year to promote school spirit. It was not easy being a cheerleader. Cheerleading required extreme dedication. The cheerleaders put in long hours of practice everyday over the summer, and competed in the National Cheerleading Competition in August. They had the distinction of winning the Spirit Stick two times, and the Most Spirited Award at SMU Cheerleading Camp. Along with practicing, they spent much time preparing Pep Rallies, dances, banners, and spirit tags. This year's cheerleaders did a tremendous job in supporting the Gators and raising school spirit.

The cheerleaders were under the new sponsorship of Ms. Edna Hamilton. She was very supportive throughout the year to the cheerleaders of 1988.

Al E. Gator

Captain Shreve's 1987-88 Al E. Gator was Elizabeth Rambin. During the summer, she attended the SMU National Cheerleading Association (NCA) with the cheerleaders where she received superior ratings in mascot competition. Elizabeth promoted school spirit and enthusiasm in the pep-rallies, and football and basketball games. Her favorite of all jobs as the Captain Shreve mascot was attending and cheering at the football games. She enjoyed taking the spotlight and entertaining the spectators when the cheerleaders took some rest and relaxation. Throughout the year Elizabeth portrayed what Gator spirit was all about.

Pep Rallies

Football, basketball, pep rallies, and Gator spirit went hand in hand at Captain Shreve. The energy of the cheerleaders and the enthusiasm of the students and faculty were a unique quality exemplifying the true spirit in Gatorland. The proud spirit at Captain Shreve never failed! Students always had something to cheer about because being a Gator gave a feeling of pride. These few moments caught by a camera are cherished forever. This year came only once in a life-time, but we will remember it forever.

WE'RE PROUD OF YOU!

You've worked hard for this day, but now that you've made it, it was worth it. Now you're just about ready to go out into the world and begin a new life. There are so many options like finding a career, going to college, or joining the service that it will be hard to make up your mind. We at The Times hope that our newspaper "your newspaper" has helped you in some way to prepare for the future. We will continue to keep you abreast of what is happening in the day to day news, sports, and activities in Shreveport and the world.

Survive By Communicating With God

Soul Survivors enjoy open communication with God. God is personal. God is forgiving. God is daily. God knows more about your wants, needs and deepest desires than you know. So, open up and let God uncover what's best in your life. Let God take hold of your every move and direct you toward a life everlasting, a life ever joyful, a life ever peaceful.

The 1988 Captain Shreve Yearbook, the LOG, was produced by a staff of thirty-eight students who were directed by Paul Hodges, acting as Editor, Holly Fullilove, acting as Assistant Editor, Carol Harders, acting as Business Manager, and Mrs. Dorothy Flanagan, acting as the faculty sponsor. Taylor Publishing Company, 1550 Mockingbird Lane, Dallas Texas printed 1050 copies of the 7¾X10, 451 page book on Smyth sewn, 80lb., double-coated, enamel paper. The theme, "A Cut Above" was developed by Paul Hodges. Photography for the LOG was provided by Cowen Studio and Paul Hodges. The staff members, using IBM PC's and Taylor's Typevision and Indexvision software prepared all the copy, which was printed using melior standard type. The cover was deep green # 23, stamped with gold foil, and covered with Lithocote. In the fall of 1987, staff members sold reservations for books for $25-$28. The books were delivered during the spring semester.

The Editors of the 1988 LOG, have attempted to record the fondest memories of high school life. They would like to express their greatest thanks to Alison Lipe, for her voluntary help, and Mrs. Flanagan for her guidance and friendship.
